Are resolutions made to be broken?

We make one every local election campaign and until last week we thought we would be able to keep the one we made at the close of the Arlington Heights mayorality campaign in April, 1954.

We are not so sure now.

If the Democratic chieftains of our country think it fitting to throw mud at their opponents, who are we to deny that same right to contributors to our Fence Post?

We are asking our readers should we adhere to our "election" resolution to keep clean the printed word or should we allow our contributors to be "keynoters."

We lost our assistant editor over the weekend. He accompanied the marines to the El Toro marine base in California on Thursday, expecting to return with them Sunday.

His telephone excuse is "I missed the plane." Until we get a full confession from him we are inclined to believe that he is spying on the Republican convention.

We are willing to accept that excuse if the spying causes him to change his party affiliations.

The editor of the Grapevine, published by inmates at the Cook County jail were so certain that politics would whitewash Orville Hodge that an editorial in a recent issue criticized any such action.

It may come as a surprise to those in custody in the county institution that old time politics are on the way out, even to the extent of long prison term for a king bee in a political organization.

It was a newspaper which started the snowball that may also engulf a number of lesser politicians. If all this scandal makes all politicians honest, we are for it.

The Marines played host last week to 6 Arlington Heights business men, taking them to the marine base in California. Not to be outdone, the Nike organization offered Tuesday to be host to 75 business men in an inspection of the Arlington station.

They will not be riding in jets as did some of the men who went to California, but if anyone of them think they would like to ride one of those rockets to the moon, or elsewhere, they might have the chance of being a guinea pig.

The Arlington station is destined to become general headquarters for missile defense of the entire Chicago area.

When an Arlington woman's wear proprietor was told that the station would have a personnel of 1,000, she was not much interested until told there would also be 150 wives. Wonder why.

Rolling Meadows is making it plain this week that they do not want to assume any of the traffic problems of Mt. Prospect. It recognizes their desire to get rid of Route 83, but they say, "not through Rolling Meadows."

Is the North Western looking for a robot to press the buttons in the Palatine depot tower when train movements block the crossings?

How can the railroad expect autoists to obey those half gates when there is nobody in the tower to raise them during switching operations?

A similar tower has been erected in Arlington Heights, whose citizens, we predict, will not be as patient as the people in Palatine.

Judge Kelley has told the Palatine police that they have a legal right to put somebody in jail when a crossing has been blocked 10 minutes. Those long trains, however, create a problem for the police if they have no helicopter to pick up the guilty trainman before an additional quarter of an hour is lost.

A Palatine housewife who does not like the dust raised by a street sweeper or the spray that kills mosquitos did not sign her name to a contribution for this week's Fence Post.

We are breaking a rule to publish an unsigned contribution, but we doubt if 90% of Palatine's residents will agree with the housewife.

Criticism of village officials is in order any time, but as individuals they should have the privilege of knowing who is throwing bricks their way.

Residents of Mt. Prospect are waiting with some eagerness the erection of state highway signs proclaiming that this original site of "Busseville" now has nearly 12,000 certified residents.

Such signs would be purely academic, however. There are plenty of "signs of the times" around Mt. Prospect today denoting bulging population and steps taken by progressive residents to provide for more than bread alone.

AIR FORCE CRASH TEAMS work to clear F86 jet wreckage from the Bensenville farm of Joseph Menolascino. The jet piled into a cornfield at 11:45 a. m. Tuesday after the pilot bailed out when the cockpit filled with smoke. VILLAGE TO FILE SUIT AGAINST CONSUMERS

Trustees Give Final Approval To Bond Issue For 2 Parking Lots

In a long-awaited move, the Arlington Heights village board Tuesday night gave its special counsel Stephen Jurco authority to file suit against the Consumers co., operators of a Ready-Mix cement batching plant on Northwest hwy.

The suit will seek to force the plant to cease operations at the site.

With the full membership of the board returned from vacation, the authorization passed easily by a 5-1 vote. Objecting was Trustee Richard Bronwell who pointed out that the suit may be dragged through higher courts for months or years and may cost the village dearly. Also, claimed Bronwell, there is no certainty that the village will emerge the winner in the fight.

AS REVEALED in a report released in July by Atty. Jurco, retained to investigate and prosecute the case, the village will contend that the batching plant violates zoning ordinances. Jurco will charge that it is an industrial operation in an area zoned only for commercial uses.

Consumers blunted a move to force the plant to halt operations last summer.

OTHER DECISIONS made by the board Tuesday included:

Final passage of the $240,000 bond issue to finance 2 municipal parking lots, 1 on State rd. and 1 north of Dunton court shopping center.

Referral to the judiciary committee of a recommendation by the Plan commission that the village join Mt. Prospect in a suit against builder Rolf J. Hatlen. Hatlen has been charged with violation of ordinances requiring dedication of land in subdivision for public use.

First reading of the parking lot bond issue was approved at a Friday night meeting. At the meeting the trustees also passed a resolution to borrow $109,000 from surplus funds in the water and sewerage account to make payments on properties on Dunton and Vail sts. being acquired for parking. The money is needed by September 1.

Bronwell again differed with his colleagues on this issue. He charged that the borrowing was not permitted under the terms of the water and sewer ordinance. Other trustees replied that the money would be returned as soon as the money came in from the sale of bonds, expected to take about 30 days.

Jet Explodes In Mid-Air, Falls On Bensenville Farm

An Air Force F86-D jet exploded in mid-aid Tuesday morning and plunged into a Bensenville cornfield.

Pilot Capt. Howard W. Nelson, 31, bailed out safely at low altitude seconds before the plane exploded. Minutes before he had taken off from O'Hare International airport on a "routine proficiency flight."

The pilotless jet crashed into a field on the Mello-Lane farm, on Irving Park rd. 1 quarter mile east of York rd., about 2 miles southwest of O'Hare.

Flaming wreckage burned a swath 30 yards wide and 75 yards long.

THE 200-ACRE farm is leased by Joseph Menolascine. Menolascino's 11-year-old son, Joseph Jr. was an eye-witness at the crash. He said he saw the jet coming low out of the northwest. He said the pilot ejected himself from the plane shortly before one of the plane's wing exploded. The jet exploded again just before it plowed into the corn field, he said.

The Air Force said Nelson bailed out at 850 feet after he notified the O'Hare control tower that the cockpit was filling with smoke. He landed safely on a runway.

AN AIR FORCE spokesman said Nelson was "very lucky" to survive so low a jump. A witness said Nelson's parachute opened "very quickly."

Nelson, of Southbury, Conn., bailed out from a jet over Lake Michigan in May, 1954. He was in the water 5 hours before rescue.

The jet crashed about 300 yards from the Menolascine home.

The Air Forfce said the plane was not armed with rockets.

Spotter Post Strikes Snag

Civil defense authorities last week struck a snag in their campaign to locate a ground observer post in Arlington Heights.

The air force hopes to set up a plane-spotter post in Arlington Heights and requested permission of the board of education of Arlington high school to erect it on school property.

The board replied that restrictions on the use of school property permit leasing of property only to another school district or to a municipality. Otherwise, members of the school board are personally liable for damages awarded in injury suits.

A LAWYER for the school board will investigate this legal angle and report back.

Lt. Frank A. Vladika, air force officer in charge of the ground observer corps in the area, said that 3 nearby spotter posts are on school grounds. The posts are in Des Palines (Cumberland school), Gurnee and Zion.

"We've never had this trouble before with school districts," the lieutenant pointed out.

The air force will look for another site on the northwest side of Arlington while the school board is making up its mind.

Freshman Orientation Planned At Arlington

Arlington high school student council is planning a full program of orientation for freshmen and all students new to Arlington high school.

Incoming freshmen are invited to attend pre-school meetings in the school cafeteria this week to meet with upper class school counselors, get acquainted with each other, and get information about school. Attendance at these meetings is not required, but last week over 300 availed themselves of this opportunity.

Meetings are scheduled at 2:00 and 3:00 Thursday and Friday and close promptly at the end of the hour. This phase of freshman orientation is in charge of Jan Holloway of the student council.

Another committee chairmanes by Ed Whitelaw and Bob Lockwood will head up a list of upper class students who will direct the freshmen and new students to the proper rooms on orientation day and the following days of the first week of school.

STUDENTS who have been in attendance at the Arlington high school will being classes on Wednesday, Sept. 5. Tuesday, Sept. 4 is orientation day for freshmen and all students new to the school this year. Bus service will be available on this day.

All freshmen and new students are to report to school at 8:10 where they will meet the administration of the school, be given their schedule of classes, meet their teachers and fellow class members, and learn their way around the building. Orientation day will compile a full day of activities. Students will eat their lunch in the cafeteria and the schedule will end at 3:00.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL also is the host for the annual freshmen party to which all freshmen are invited.

The party will be held in the high school gym and cafeteria from 7 to 9 on Friday, Sept. 7. There will be a program presented by the upper classmen and a few mixing games to help the freshmen become acquainted. Carol Wille is the student council chairman for this event.

Summer Stage Play At North School This Weekend

"Coming, coming—here!" says publicity chairman Mary Jo Utt of the Summer Stage production of Oscar Wilde's comedy, "The Importance of Being Earnest." The group, made up of Students and recent graduates of Arlington Heights high school, will give 2 performances, Friday and Saturday nights at North school at 8 p.m.

Tickets are still on sale at Harris Pharmacy, Dunton Court; Arlington Heights Pharmacy, Davis and Vail, and Henderson Pharmacy in the Elms Shopping center.

Chamber Of Commerce Organize Credit Bureau

The Arlington Heights Chamber is in the process of organizing a credit bureau to serve the village and surrounding communities, Manager Dwight H. Wallace announced Tuesday.

"This climaxes months of intensive promotional effort by the chamber and will assure a more prosperous and stable community," asserted Wallace.

Wallace will immediately commence gathering office equipment and materials.

By the time the holiday shopping season rolls around, the chamber hopes to have the credit bureau in full operation.

Transfer Methodist Properties To Young Evangelical Church

In a ceremony in Chicago Monday the title deeds to the buildings occupied by the First Methodist church of Arlington Heights for 28 years were turned over to a congregation organized only 4 years ago, the Arlington Heights Evangelical Free church.

NEGOTIATIONS for purchase of the property and buildings on the northwest corner of Dunton and St. James sts. began in January, 1955. Since then the 2 congregations have been jointly using the buildings for worship.

A concerted fund drive among its members enabled the young congregation to purchase the substantial properties, including the sanctuary, a brick and frame structure built in 1928, an adjoining educational building containing a second auditorium and a 7-room parsonage.

PASTOR CHARLES G. Will and his family have lived in the parsonage since January, when the new Methodist parsonage on E. Euclid was completed.

Until the Methodists move into their new sanctuary early in September, both groups will worship at the Free church.

The Evangelical Free church will hold dedication services during the week beginning September 30.

THIS HANDSOME STRUCTURE, occupied by the First Methodist church of Arlington Heights since 1928, passed into the hands of the Evangelical Free church this week for an undisclosed purchase price. A new Methodist church is under construction on E. Euclid ave. —Staff photo

Pick Name Of O'Hare City For Elk Grove Area Town Proposed For Incorporation

The crossroads community that for 100 years went by the name of Elk Grove wants to hitch its wagon to a jet.

Last week a group of would-be fathers of a proposed city in Elk Grove township voted in favor of calling it O'Hare City.

As a recently-incorporated village in another section of the township had christened itself with the name of Elk Grove, the Elk Grove School District Men's association, backers of the new city, had to select another name.

The area the association wants to incorporate touches the northwest corner of O'Hare International airport. It was suggested that identification with a well-known name would give the community a big boost and create loads of community spirit among residents.

ROUGHLY, the bounds of the 4-square mile city would be Dempster st. on the north, Busse rd. on the west, Mt. Prospect rd. on the east and a line several blocks north of Devon ave. on the south.

Latest boundaries were revealed at a meeting of the association board of directors last week. Formerly a long corridor extended north of Dempster st. along Linneman rd. taking in St. John's Lutheran church and then stretching west along Golf rd. to include a small subdivision at the corner of Busse and Golf rds.

Residents in the corridor objected to being included in the proposed city and so have been excluded.

ORIGINALLY a name was to have been chosen at a general meeting of the association. The board of directors and a few leading proponents of the city actually selected it, apparently in order to speed up incorporation proceedings.

The first step in the proceedings, the circulation of petitions asking for an election on incorporation, could not begin until a community has a name. After the backers got one last week, they authorized attorney Paul Collins to draw up petitions.

Once 50 residents sign the petitions, a judge sets an election for no later than 30 days after approval of petitions. A judge must also satisfy himself that the proposed city has the required 1,000 population.

BACKERS of incorporation were to make an intensive drive for new members at the meeting last night. Expenses of incorporation and election of officials would cost about $500.

As the association before last night had only $200, representing 40 paid members, in its treasury, the need for arousing greater area-wide participation in the incorporation was clear.

Also disclosed last week was the resignation of Frank J. Kessler as president of the Men's association. He wrote the group that his business interests no longer allowed him to devote sufficient time to the job.

Thieves Disbelieve Political Promises Of Car For Each Garage

While all eyes were turned to television sets for political promises last week, some people were going about getting a car for their garage in their own way.

Arlington Heights police reported that auto thieves made off with 2 cars. Thursday night a 1953 Mercury 4-door sedan was stolen from Roto Mercury, 1410 E. Northwest hwy. and Saturday under cover of darkness a 1950 Ford was taken from its parking spot near State and Miner.

Failure To Use Brakes Causes Injury, Accident

Three motorists driving at a good clip along U. S. 14 in Arlington Heights were unable to halt their cars or slow down to avoid accidents during the past week.

As a result one person was injured and another received a ticket for speeding.

Vivian M. Weber, 910 S. Beverly lane, Arlington Heights, had stopped her car on the highway before turning into an ice cream stand driveway. While she waited to permit a car to come out of the parking lot, her car was struck in the rear by one driven by Eugene E. Money, 17, of Barrington. Then another car, driven by Gordon P. Wells, 35, of Wilmington, Ill., slammed into the rear of Money's car.

A passenger in Money's car, 15-year-old Armand Jurs, also of Barrington, received a bruised shoulder in the Friday accident.

TWO CARS headed east on the highway the next day tangled in front of the Ready-Mix plant.

Allen D. Sommerfield, 21, of 15 W. Oakton, Palatine, was arrested for driving too fast for conditions. His car hit another auto driven by Albert L. Baker, 55, of Des Plaines.

Baker had pulled into the inner lane in front of the plant to avoid a "Men at Work" sign standing in the outer lane. The Baker auto was struck in the rear by the other car.

Saturday, October 20, is the date set by the Rolling Meadows Lions club for their fall dance. Fred's Place on Rand rd. will be the site of the dance at 8:30 p.m.

The dance will feature both country and ballroom style dance numbers according to club president Ray Walker. Refreshments of all types will also be available.

Skoog Queried On Parking

Trustee John F. Hoover's verbal sparring with police chief Carl H. Skoog brought an outburst of reprimand from Maylor Albert Goedke at Tuesday's meeting of the village board.

Hoover, chairman of the police committee, sharply questioned Skoog for 20 minutes concerning complaints alleging that police were failing to give parking tickets to telephone company employees for "numerous and repeated" violations of the 2-hour parking limit on N. Vail ave. in the vicinity of the telephone building.

TUESDAY'S repartee had been preceded by a July 16 letter to Skoog from Fred J. Scheuner, secretary of the board of fire and police commissioners, and Skoog's July 21 reply.

Skoog said that until he received the secretary's letter July 16, parking regulations had been "slightly relaxed" in the area of the telephone building because of construction of the building addition.

Skoog said restrictions were relaxed "with the specific knowledge and consent of the village board and the village manager," F. R. Buechner.

Hoover replied that Buechner, not present at the meeting, knew nothing of such arrangements and that he himself did not remember the board ever giving Skoog authority to relax parking restrictions.

Skoog said a telephone company representative came before the board in June, 1955 to explain the construction situation which would close part of the company's parking lot.

"That's news to me," said Hoover.

Trustee Robert B. Bishop confirmed Skoog's memory. He said the matter was "so unimportant at the time" that it was left up to the chief to work out.

HOOVER THEN charged "deceit somewhere" because he said Buechner had no knowledge of such arrangements although Skoog said he had discussed the situation with the village manager.

Mayor Goedke broke into the questioning to "remember Skoog being told to take care of the parking problem" and reprimanded Hoover for carrying on a "personal grudge" at the board table.

"IT DOESN'T LOOK good to me or to the public," Goedke said.

The board then approved Hoover's motion that whenever the police chief directs police officers in enforcement policies, that the order be in writing.

Also in reply to questioning, Skoog said he had never voided tickets except when the meter was out of order or tickets were issued to doctors and nurses on official calls.

Who Suggested Name For New O'Hare City?

Who suggested the name of O'Hare City?

That question is puzzling a group of admittedly red-faced officials of the Elk Grove Men's association.

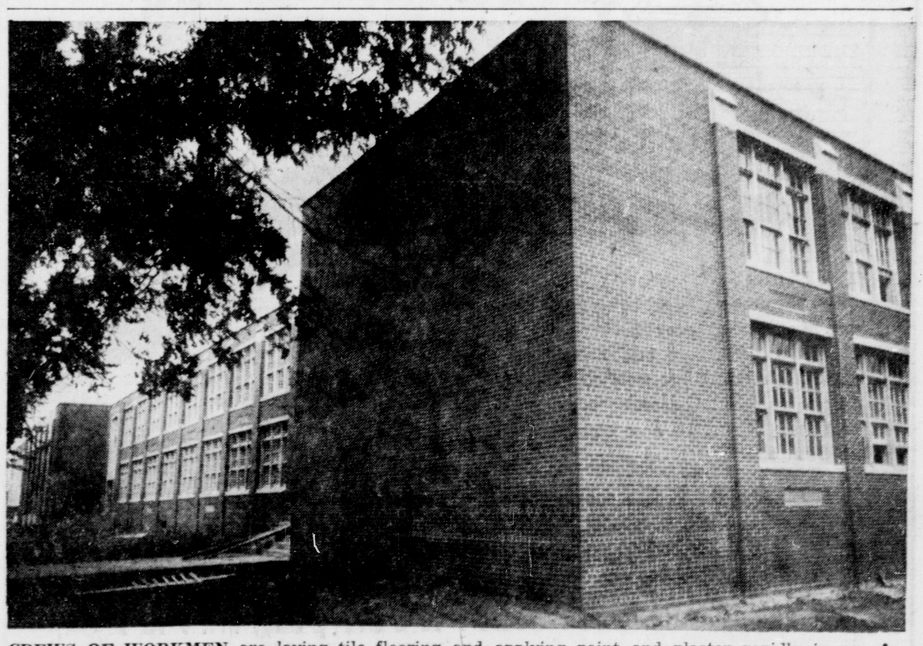
In July and August Paddock Publications sponsored a contest for names for the new community now proposed for incorporation in Elk Grove township.

The person who sent in the name eventually selected was to receive $25.

Some one, say the officials, sent in the name of O'Hare City. It was selected last week but the officials don't know who is to get the $25.

The entries somehow got misplaced, as letters will even over a short period of time.

Will the person who sent in that name please write in to "Contest Editor, Paddock Publications, Arlington Heights, Ill"



CREWS OF WORKMEN are laying tile flooring and applying paint and plaster rapidly in an effort to complete the $1,250,000 addition to Arlington high school in time for the start of classes on September 4. By early this week 2,160 students had registered and the final total was expected to mount slightly over the 2,200 planned capacity. —Staff photo

Round 'n About Westgate

Bob Maley, 305 Reuter, has found out that top salesmanship can bring out many pleasures in life. Bob recently won a 3-month sales contest sponsored by his firm, the Harold Pitman Co. in Chicago, making him top salesman in his company. He and his wife, Elaine, spent a glamourous weekend at the Waldorf in New York City, all expenses paid, and flew both ways. Elaine's neighbors presented her with an orchid before leaving.

Trips Here 'N There

The Anton Van Bladel family of 108 Reuter journeyed to Attica, Ind. over the weekend to visit former Chicago friends whom they haven't seen in 5 years. Their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gates have 6 children as do the Van Bladels and a jolly gathering was the order of the weekend.

Rose and Frank Johnson, 1410 Fremont, along with their 3 children have just returned from a 2½* week vacation in the east. They visited Canada, Niagara Falls, New Hampshire, Maine and Washington.

Don Fiduccia, 6½-year-old son of Jane and Sam, 1615 Johnna ter., spent a week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lhotka of Downers Grove. He then visited his other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Fiduccia in Wood Dale, for another week before returning home.

Rita Fiduccia celebrated her third birthday August 10. August 11 a party was held in her honor with Rita's godparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Mocella of Chicago, and her grandparents and cousins as guests. The party was really a double celebration as August 12 was her father, Sam's, birthday.

Fran and Harry Hebard, 409 Reuter, held a barbecue dinner last Friday evening for several of their neighbors. Among the guests were Bari and Pat O'Dea, Eleanor and Bud DeZonna, Pat and Don Nelson and Dorothy and Herb Stokes.

Here from Omaha for a week's visit is Ernie Abariothes. Ernie is the brother of Bari O'Dea of 301 Reuter.

A wonderful tribute was paid to Bari O'Dea this past week by the Chicago Tribune, for the effort and time she is giving to the Chicago Foundling home in Chicago. It was Bari who started the koffee klatches in Westgate which have now spread to all parts of Arlington and surrounding suburbs. She appreciates the cooperation given to her in Westgate in starting and keeping the koffee's going. All donations ar turned over to the Home as a method of raising funds for a new building.

Sometime in the not too distant future, I'm going to show you a picture of the drug store my Dad owned, 'way back when. I know many of you old-timers will remember that type of store, and many of the younger folks will get a tremendous kick out of it. Of course, as this country has become streamlined, so has the drug store, and now we have most everything for your needs.

Which brings to mind the important part the lunch counter plays in the operation of a drug store. We have lunch counters in both our stores and do rather a good business, because we serve good sandwiches, soup, good nutritious malteds and milk shakes and many other selections, including a real good cup of coffee. For those who do not have the time for a long lunch period, we offer the ideal place for a light lunch. Why don't you give us a try the next time you're downtown. I'm sure you'll agree that the food is good, nourishing and reasonable.

The lunch counter is to the drug store what ham is to eggs. Well can I remember the day when I almost failed an examination at the School of Pharmacy, because I couldn't make sandwiches. (Oh well, I tried to come up with a joke.) Make it a point to try our sandwiches the next time you're in one of our locations. Remember, if you don't like the food, we also serve Alka-seltzer, Tums and bicarbonates, but why bring that up? Think I'll stop while I'm still ahead.

Not A Lefty

The Sporting News says that one of the best cracks of the season came from Dale Long of Pittsburgh after the recent scuffle between Duke Snider of the Dodgers and a Cincinnati fan. As relayed by Writer Les Biederman of Pittsburgh, Long said: "Snider couldn't have hit the fan, because the fan was a left-hander and Snider doesn't hit lefthanders."

Arlington Greens

The Greens annual street dance will be held Saturday night at the corner of Hickory and Beverly. A sound truck will provide music and no admission will be charged. Lawn furniture will be a feature of the evening. Ed Koren, Jay Bradshaw and Ken Jennings of the social committee announce that proceeds of the dance will go to defray the expenses of the Greens' Christmas party for the children.

Erwin and Lorraine Detloff, 1160 N. Hickory, drove to Sioux City, Iowa to spend the week with Loraine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman. They also took their daughter, Susan to Spirit Lake, Iowa while on the trip.

Emil and LaVerne Leverick, 1109 Douglas, and their 2 children, Rickey and Martha, spent a few days in Saxon, Wis. with LaVerne's sister's family, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Holm.

John and Terry Lynch, 605 Olive, took Stephen, 6, and Michael, 1½, to visit Terry's folks, Dr. and Mrs. M. Healy in Minneapolis.

Pamela Miresse, 679 E. Clarendon, was 5 years old Thursday. The big event at her birthday party was a pony cart ride for the guests. Enjoying the ride through the Greens with Pamela were; Dennis and Pamela Hemb, Danny Goreyskent and Cathy MacNamara, Harry and Susie Williamson and Pamela's cousins from Chicago, Allen, Harold, Karen and Diane Stebbins. A barbecue supper was held at the Miresse home for aunts and uncles of Pamela. Later in the evening coffee and cake were served to other relatives.

Al Loos, 1170 Beverly, spent a week in California on business. In San Francisco he stayed night with George and Mary Brandt, formerly his next door neighbors in the Greens. Al was crowded out of his hotel room by GOP conventioneers.

Tom and Maryn Johnson, 815 Olive, had overnight visitors Monday. Maryn's brother, Weston Dash, and a friend, Bob Waller, were on their way from Berea, Ohio to a Lambda Chi convention in Glenwood Springs, Colo.

The Greens welcomes new neighbors, Carl and Marie Traina, who have moved from Chicago to 643 Clarendon with their 3 children, Mary Lou, 9, Terry, 3½, and Paulette, 4 months.

Committees and committee chairmen are Mrs. Robert Nichol, Mrs. Richard Hoppe, Mrs. Richard Fos, Mrs. Robert Sielken, Mrs. Joseph Peters, Mrs. Kenneth Jennings, Mrs. Carl Behrens and Mrs. Clayton Hilburt.

Mitchell ave.

The Melodeers dance band will provide music for dancing and the Barbershoppers will sing. Tables around the dancing area will be set up for refreshments. Featured among the refreshments will be charcoal-grilled Italian sausages.

Games of all kinds will be available and the decoration committee plans to transform the parish grounds into a scene of enchantment.

Chairman of the affair is Oreste Tomei, 535 E. Orchard, president of the Ushers club. He will be assisted by John Lagorio, 305 S. Dunton. Carmen Duro, 510 Banbury rd., is in charge of refreshments. Games will be under the supervision of Theodore Koenig, 343 S. Bristol. Tickets are being distributed by William Tully, 2412 Fremont. Matthew Brost, 605 E. Scientists Forge Ahead In Fight On Dread Oat Disease

Scientists completed another lap in their race against oat diseases when they recently harvested 3,700 different oat varieties at the Illinois Agricultural experiment station in Urbana.

C. M. Brown of the agronomy department at the University of Illinois college of agriculture and R. M. Takeshita of the U. S. department of agriculture's research service are using seed from the USDA world collection in their research.

THEY ARE WORKING now to perfect an oat variety that is resistant to the damaging virus disease known as "yellow dwarf" or "red leaf" before the disease severely hits oat crops in Illinois.

Takeshita recently confirmed that tiny aphids transmit this disease from plant to plant. He then grew aphids on diseased plants in the greenhouse and placed them on healthy plants in the field. It took the aphids only three days to infect the healthy plants and they were then destroyed by spraying.

In this way the 3,700 different varieties were infected. At harvest time, the scientists selected varieties that showed high resistance. Plant breeders will breed these resistant varieties with high yielding plants to produce better varieties.

THE USDA estimates that research such as this has put an extra billion dollars in the pockets of oat growers during the last 20 years at a cost of slightly more than $3 million for research — a $1,000 return for every $3 spent.

About 80 per cent of the nation's oat crop is grown in the north-central states, and about half of that total in Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Farmers in Illinois therefore stand to benefit greatly from the oat research at the University of Illinois college of agriculture and the Illinois agricultural experiment station. (Fm

Chamber Briefs Views States Water Problem

A factual study revealing the extent of Illinois' water resources and the problems involved in meeting the growing public and industrial demand has been released by the Illinois State chamber of commerce.

The 38-page report, with descriptive maps, diagrams and pictures, highlights the findings of a 10-month investigation into a problem that is of vital concern to the entire state. It represents the first gathering together of all the facts relating to the state's water supply and problems.

"THE REPORT," according to Louis Ratzesberger, Jr., president of the statewide business organization, 'was designed to provide chamber members, the Illinois General Assembly and the legislative commission on water and drouth with a general outline of the nature and extent of the state's water resources, major uses and problems."

Illinois is not an arid state and does not suffer from an absolute shortage of water or of sources of supply, the reports points out. Nevertheless, there is no effective way of controlling the amount of rainfall, and in recent years some areas of the state without favorable natural reserves have encountered critical shortages.

AN EXAMPLE of this was the drouth that occurred between 1952 and 1955, which caused enormous crop losses in central and southern Illinois. Other shortages have been brought about by an expanding and more demanding population and industrial growth.

Unless effective local measures are taken to prepare for future requirements, the chamber's study warns that some communities, farmers and industries will find their efforts to progress seriously handicapped.

Copies of the chambers report may be obtained at 50 cents each by writing to the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce, 20 North Wacker drive, Chicago 6, Illinois. (B7

Offer Season Tickets for Village Theatre Plays Now

Members of Village Theatre of Arlington Heights are inviting local people interested in their productions to become patrons of the organization.

They may become patrons by purchasing at this time tickets for both of next year's plays at the regular price. In return Village Theatre will reserve a section of seats at each performance for its subscription members. They will also receive newsletters about the group from time to time through the year.

VILLAGE THEATRE has inaugurated this new policy in the hope of helping their sponsors by selling some of the tickets in advance. Patrons tickets will also partially underwrite regular expenses of the organization.

The fall play this season is "Sabrina Fair," to be given October 18, 19 and 20 at the Junior High school under the sponsorship of the PTA. PTA will receive the full price for each patron ticket used at the performances. "The Tender Trap" will be given by Village Theatre at the high school next spring.

The public relations committee, Bob Hutchinson, chairman, is in general charge of the patron program, with a sub-committee consisting of Mrs. Dennis Malcolmson, Mrs. Carl Schneider and Dick Down specifically concerned with solicitation.

Any one who has not been contacted and who is interested in purchasing patron tickets may call Mrs. Malcolmson at CL 3-3372.

Here's How Family Service Aided A Typical Husband

Bill Wilson did the smart thing. When he found himself up against a personal probelm he couldn't solve, he told his personnel manager:

"I can't put in a good day's work anymore for worrying about it. When my wife's father died last year, her mother came to live with us. My wife went to work after that because she said we needed the extra money to support a larger family. Her mother tries to manage the kids while we are not home but they don't take to her old-fashioed ways. It's led to fights between me and my wife. Last week Tony, the 14-year-old, was picked up by the police for stealing a hubcap. How is it going to end up in Pauline and me splitting up, in Tony turning out a real juvenile delinquent, or in our throwing the grandmother out?"

THE PERSONNEL manager listed to Bill's story.

From experience he knew how common such everyday worries are, how they can break down the best of family relationships.

He also knew what to do.

If Bill had said his wife was acting "strangely" he might have thought of a psychiatrist or mental health clinic. For physical illness he knew doctors, hospitals and health services. For a personal or family problem like this, he suggested Bill go to a family service counsellor.

Grant Thiersch Plea For Zoning Rehearing

The Arlington Heights zoning board of appeals must hold a second hearing on a petition to rezone a piece of farmland for commercial use.

Tuesday night the village board ignored that zoning board recommendation that the petition be refused and instead sent the matter back to the zoning board for another hearing, waiving the usual petitioner's fees.

Arthur F. Thiersch, owner of a 3.8 acre parcel on the south side of the CNW tracks west of Euclid, asked for a rehearing, saying that he had additional evidence to present.

Arlington Monthly Sales Tax Check Jumps To $8,400

Arlington Heights received $8,400 last week covering its share of the sales tax collected by the state for the month of May. This is $1,500 greater than the village received for April.

William F. Meyer, village treasurer, estimates that the monthly sales tax check will exceed $10,000 before end of the year.

The recently-adopted appropriation ordinance did not include sales tax receipts. "We are keeping faith with the promise made when we adopted the sales tax ordinance," says Mayor Goedke. "The money is being placed in a special fund and will be used solely for improvements that are greatly needed but for which no funds are available."

Sales taxes paid under protest are only held by the state for 30 days. If no court action is started in the period, the money is released to various municipalities. There are 758 cities collecting the tax. (AH

Each and every day brings us new customers who in turn have been recommended to us by a satisfied customer; and believe me, there is no better recommendation. We take pride in turning out cleaning and pressing that is just a little better, because we have the equipment, we have the personnel and, with this MARTINIZING method, we have the know-how.

Keep the "joint jumpin' " with those phone calls, as we'll be waiting for them; it's the first 10 to call who get the FREE cleaning and pressing job.

PREVENTIVE DENTISTRY is now the goal of the Dental profession. Your Dentist judges his success by how many of your teeth he can save for you.

WHEN YOU VISIT YOUR DENTIST regularly you give him the opportunity to prevent troubles. Cavities are filled painlessly before they begin to ache. Gums are observed for possible recession, or infection, and treated when necessary.

YOUR MODERN DENTIST often prescribes special vitamin and mineral combinations that fortify your teeth, or one of the new medicines that will relieve those subject to nervous tension.

HIS DENTAL JOURNALS keep him informed about new techniques just as our drug journals report to us. Your Dentist is an important member of the "Health Team" that is helping you to enjoy life more. Should he wish to prescribe any medication, or recommend any special dental-aids, please tell him that we will be glad to carefully follow his instructions.

Teachers Return To Arlington

Schools days are nearly here. The 109 teachers of the Arlington Heights public elementary schools are returning to their jobs on Monday for a week of intensive planning and preparation for the opening of school September 4. Principals and other administrators have been on the job for 2 weeks or more.

Teachers new to the school system will spend considerable time being briefed on the phases of school policy which will affect their teaching. In addition, the Parent-Teacher association is planning a tour of the village and a breakfast to help welcome new staff members.

THE WEEK'S schedule also provides time for all teachers to work in their classrooms, preparing for the first arrival of the children. Bulletin boards will be covered with enticing pictures and sugestions of the many things to be learned in the room during the year. Books will be taken from storage and the final cleaning jobs completed. The first day of classes will be a full day's work for everyone.

In addition to preparing for the arrival of the children, teachers will meet together to study various phases of the school curriculum and operation. R. E. Clabaugh, superintendent, will discuss effective human relations with new teachers on Monday, and will address the entire staff on Thursday, on the philosophy and policies of the school system.

Mrs. Agnes Skadberg, reading consulant, will hold several meetings with teachers to discuss the new textbooks adopted this year, and the general problems of teaching reading.

Sam Herrell, representative of the John C. Winston company, will discuss the most effective ways to use the newly adopted arithmetic books.

MRS. KAY (Campbell) Loubet, art consultant, will talk with teachers concerning the ways in which they can incorporate art into the school subjects. Mrs. Loubet returns to the school system this year from a year's leave of absence, which she spent living in France.

Building principals will hold meetings on local school policy and teaching procedures. A special meeting in each school will be devoted to planning the in-service training projects which each school staff will tackle this year.

The special education teachers such as the speech correctionists, school nurse, vocal music teachers and visiting counselor, will be available to provide information on the manner in which all teachers can be of help to children in the area of their specialty.

The Parent-Teacher association will be hosts to the teachers at a breakfast on Wednesday morning. Mrs. Howard Froyd, PTA president, and Victor Bedingfield, president of the board of education, will be on hand to welcome new teachers and to greet those who are returning.

SECTION 7. From and after the date that this ordinance becomes effective, all motor vehicle parking facilities of said Village of Arlington Heights, for the purpose of this ordinance, shall be operated on a fiscal year basis, commencing the first day of May and ending on the last day of April of each year, and the entire revenues derived from the operation of said motor vehicle parking facilities of said Village shall be set aside as collected and be deposited in a separate fund which is hereby created to be designated as the "Parking System Revenue Fund of the Village of Arlington Heights", which shall be used only in paying the reasonable costs of the maintenance and operation of said facilities, and paying the principal of and interest upon the bonds of said Village authorized under the terms of this ordinance, and which by their terms are payable from said revenues, and for the creation and maintenance of the several accounts specified in Section 8 hereof, and such Parking System Revenue Fund shall be used for such purposes and is hereby pledged therefor.

SECTION 8. That there shall be established five (5) separate accounts in said Parking System Revenue Fund, to be designated severally the "Operation and Maintenance Account", the "Bond and Interest Account", the "Bond Reserve Account", the "Replacement Account", and the "Surplus Account", in which there shall be deposited on the first business day of each month all moneys held in the Parking System Revenue Fund, in accordance with the following provisions, and in the order the accounts referred to are hereinafter mentioned:

(a) There first shall be credited in the Operation and Maintenance Account such a sum of money as is necessary to pay the reasonable cost of operating and maintaining said motor vehicle parking system under an efficient and economical management for the period of one month; which shall include, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, salaries, wages, cost of materials and supplies, purchase of power for lighting, insurance and all other expenses incidental to the operation and maintenance thereof. The Village covenants, however, that there will be charged to the Maintenance and Operation Account for police protection, enforcement and supervision of the motor vehicle parking facilities only those salaries and expenses of the Police Department necessarily required for enforcement, supervision and protection of said facilities.

(b) There shall be credited in the Bond and Interest Account, beginning September 1, 1956, and on the first business day of each month thereafter, an amount equal to one-eighth (⅛) of the interest becoming due on May 1, 1957, and thereafter one-sixth (1/6) of the interest becoming due on all outstanding parking revenue bonds on the next succeeding interest payment date; and beginning May 1, 1957, and on the first business day of each month thereafter, an amount at least equal to one-twelfth (1/12) of the principal becoming due on its outstanding parking revenue bonds on the next succeeding principal payment date

Funds to pay said principal and interest as provided by this ordinance, together with sums sufficient to pay the fees and expenses of the paying agent herein designated, or its successors, shall be transmitted to such paying agent from time to time and at least fifteen (15) days prior to the expressed maturity of any principal or due date of interest.

(c) There next shall be credited, beginning September 1, 1956, in the Bond Reserve Account the sum of $500.00 each month until said Account aggregates the sum of $22,000.00, and thereafter no further amounts shall be credited to said account except that, whenever any money is paid out of said Account said credits to said Account shall be resumed and continued until such time as the Account has again been restored to the aggregate amount of $22,000.00.

The funds in said Account shall be used and held for use and shall be withdrawn, from time to time, only for the purpose of paying principal of or interest on the bonds of said Village which by their terms are payable from the revenues of the motor vehicle parking system of said Village whenever there are insufficient funds on hand available for that purpose in the Bond Account, and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer or other fiscal officers of the Village to withdraw such funds from time to time for that purpose. Funds held in such Account may be invested from time to time by said Village in interest bearing bonds or other direct and general obligations of the United States Government having maturities within the time such funds shall be needed, and such securities may be sold from time to time pursuant to resolution of the President and Board of Trustees as funds may be needed for the purpose for which said account was created and the proceeds derived from the sale of any such securities and any interest accrued on said securities shall be credited to said Bond Reserve Account.

(d) There next shall be credited in the Replacement Account, beginning September 1, 1956, the sum of $300. each month until said Account aggregates the sum of $18,000.00, and thereafter no further amounts shall be credited to said Account except that, whenever any money is paid out of said Account, credits to said Account shall be resumed and continued until such time as the Account has again been restored to the aggregate amount of $18,000.00. The funds of said Account shall be used and held for use and shall be withdrawn from said Account, from time to time, as ordered by resolution of the President and Board of Trustees, only for the purpose of replacing parking facilities or parking meters that have become obsolete, outworn or unusuable, except that the funds held in said Account to the extent necessary to prevent or remedy a default in the payment of the interest on or principal of the bonds herein authorized shall be transferred to the Bond Account, and whenever such a transfer is made, the amount so transferred shall be added to the next credit herein required until full reimbursement to said Replacement Account has been made. Funds held in said Account may be invested from time to time by said Village in interest bearing bonds or other direct and general obligations of the United States Government having maturities within the time such funds shall be needed, and such securities may be sold from time to time pursuant to resolution of the President and Board of Trustees as funds may be needed for the purpose for which said account was created, and the proceeds derived from the sale of any such securities, and all interest accrued on said securities, shall be credited to said Replacement Account; and

(e) All moneys remaining in the motor vehicle parking system fund of said Village at the end of any fiscal year, as established by this Ordinance, after crediting the required amounts in the accounts (a) to (d), inclusive, as hereinabove set forth, shall be credited to the Surplus Account.

The funds of said Surplus Account shall be used at any time to make up any deficiencies in credits to any of the accounts (a) to (d), inclusive, hereinabove provided for, and if all credits have been made to said accounts (a) to (d), inclusive, as provided for by this ordinance and there remain funds to the credit of said Surplus Account at any time, said funds may be used up to and including May 1, 1966, to pay the cost of improvements, enlargements or extensions of the parking facilities of said Village, or in lieu thereof may be used for the purchase in the open market of any of the outstanding Parking Revenue Bonds of said Village which by their terms are payable from the revenues derived from the operation of the parking facilities of said Village at a price of not to exceed the maximum redemption price thereof, plus accrued interest to date of payment, and any such bonds so purchased shall be cancelled and not reissued.

On and after May 1, 1966, the funds of said Surplus Account shall be used only in redeeming any outstanding Parking Revenue Bonds of said Village which by their terms are payable from the parking facilities of said Village as said bonds become redeemable, at a price not to exceed the maximum redemption price thereof.

Funds in the Surplus Account may be invested from time to time by said Village in interest bearing bonds or other direct and general obligations of the United States Government, having maturities within the time such funds shall be needed, and such securities may be sold from time to time pursuant to resolution of the President and Board of Trustees as funds may be needed for the purpose for which said account was created. The proceeds derived from the sale of such securities and any interest accrued from such securities shall be credited to said Surplus Account.

SECTION 9. If within any month the revenues of said motor vehicle parking facilities are insufficient to credit the required amounts in any of said Accounts, the deficiency shall be made up the next following month or months after all credits into all Accounts enjoying a prior claim of revenues have been made in full.

When and so long as the amount held in the Bond and Interest Account and Bond Reserve Account from whatever source received shall be equal to the aggregate principal amount of all of said bonds remaining outstanding, together with interest thereon to maturity, no further payments shall be made in the Bond Account.

SECTION 10. That the Village of Arlington Heights covenants and agrees with the holders of said bonds and coupons hereby authorized that so long as the bonds or any of them remain outstanding and unpaid, either as to principal or interest:

(a) The Village will maintain the system in good repair and working order and will operate it efficiently and will faithfully and punctually perform all duties with reference to the system required by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Illinois, including the making and collection of sufficient rates and charges for the use of the system, and the segregation and application of the revenues of the system, in the manner provided in this ordinance.

(b) That the Village will establish and maintain at all times reasonable fees, charges and rates for the use of all parking facilities sufficient to pay the reasonable costs of operation and maintenance, to pay interest on and principal of all revenue bonds of said Village which by their terms are payable from the revenues of said facilities, and to provide for the creation of the respective accounts as provided in Section 8 of this ordinance and will provide for the collection and deposit thereof, and the segregation and application of the revenues of said system and facilities in the manner provided by this ordinance; and that the Village will from time to time make all needful and proper repairs, replacements, additions and betterments to the equipment and facilities of said system so that it may at all times be operated properly and advantageously, and when any parking meter or other equipment of facilities of said system shall have been worn out, destroyed or otherwise unfit for proper use, it shall be promptly replaced or repaired so that the value and efficiency of the facilities shall be at all times fully maintained, and its revenues unencumbered by reason thereof; provided, however, said Village shall at its discretion be authorized to provide facilities for free off-street parking, not to exceed 10% of the square foot area of all of said off-street parking facilities.

(c) The Village will not permit free parking, except as in (b) above, or service to be supplied by the system to the Village or any department thereof or to any person, firm or corporation, public or private, or to any public agency or instrumentality, and all persons using any part of the system for the parking of vehicles shall pay for such services the established rate or charge;

(d) That the Village will establish such rules and regulations for the control and operation of said facilities necessary for the efficient and economical operation thereof, and rates and charges shall be fixed and revised from time to time as may be necessary to produce funds sufficient for all the purposes herein provided;

(e) That the Village will establish such rules and regulations as to the use of any such parking facilities to assure the maximum use or occupancy thereof;

(f) That so long as any of the bonds authorized herein are outstanding the Village will maintain and carry adequate public liability insurance against claims arising out of the operation of the parking facilities. Said insurance shall be carried in a responsible insurance company or companies authorized to do business in the State of Illinois, and the cost thereof shall be deemed to be a maintenance and operation cost;

(g) That the Village will maintain parking meters and collect rates therefrom in the manner required by this ordinance on all public streets where such parking meters are presently located as of the date of the passage of this ordinance, and on such streets and in off-street parking lots where parking meters shall hereafter be located until all of the bonds authorized by this ordinance have been paid in full, both as to principal and interest; provided, however, this covenant shall not be construed to prohibit necessary changes in the location of such parking meters made necessary by street widening or street closings or substitution or changes in the location of parking meters to provide essential and necessary traffic regulation and control, provided such change will not lessen the then current income and revenue to be derived from such meters or impair the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds authorized;

(h) That the Village will maintain and keep proper books of records and accounts (separate from all other records and accounts of said Village) in which complete entries shall be made of all transactions relating to the said parking facilities, including number of meters in service on street and off-street at year's end, and said Village hereby covenants that it will cause the books and accounts of said parking facilities to be audited annually by certified public accountants and within not more than thirty days after the close of each fiscal year will file with JOHN NUVEEN & CO. the original purchaser of said bonds, complete operating income statements of said facilities in reasonable detail covering such fiscal year and will furnish upon written request not more than thirty days after the close of each fiscal year copies of such operations and income statements to any holder of any of said bonds and will permit JOHN NUVEEN & CO., or any holder or holders to inspect at all reasonable times said parking facilities and all records and accounts and data relating thereto, and to furnish to JOHN NUVEEN & CO., or any holder or holders of said bonds, then outstanding all data and information relating to said facilities which may be reasonably requested;

(i) That so long as any of the bonds authorized hereunder are outstanding the Village will not sell, lease, loan, mortgage or in any manner dispose of or encumber said parking facilities until all of said bonds hereby authorized shall be paid in full, both principal and interest, or unless and until provision shall have been made for the payment thereof, and that said Village will take no action in relation to said facilities which would unfavorably affect the security of the bonds or the prompt payment of principal and interest thereon;

(j) Any holder of a bond or bonds or any of the coupons of any bond or bonds issued hereunder may either in law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceeding enforce or compel performance of all duties required by this ordinance, including the making and collection of sufficient charges and rates for the use of said motor vehicle parking facilities, and the application of the income and revenue therefrom

SECTION 11. That it is hereby covenanted and agreed that while any of such bonds herein authorized to be issued are outstanding, no prior lien bonds or other obligations payable from the income and revenue derived and to be derived from the operation of the motor vehicle parking facilities as herein defined shall be issued; equal lien bonds may not be issued unless (1) average annual net revenues derived from the motor vehicle parking system for the two preceding fiscal years were sufficient to pay all costs of operation and maintenance and leave a balance equal to one and one-half times the average annual requirements for principal of and interest on all bonds then outstanding payable from the revenues of the said facilities and on such additional bonds or other obligations proposed to be issued, and (2) all monthly credits to the Bond Reserve Account and Replacement Account have been made during said fiscal year as specified in Section 8 above.

Notwithstanding the restrictions upon the issue of bonds or other obligations as hereinabove provided, said Village shall have the power and reserves the right to issue bonds to refund part of the bonds hereby authorized with the consent of the holders thereof, and such refunding bonds shall share ratably and equally in the revenues derived and to be derived from said motor vehicle parking facilities and in the pledge thereof made under this ordinance with the bonds hereby authorized that are not refunded, provided that if less than all of said bonds then outstanding are refunded in such manner that the interest rate is increased or the refunding bonds mature at a date earlier than the maturity of the bonds refunded thereby, then such refunding bonds shall not share ratably and equally in said revenues of such motor vehicle parking facilities with the unrefunded bonds remaining outstanding, but in such case the pledge of revenues to the payment of such refunding bonds shall be junior and subordinate to the pledge of the revenues for the payment of the unrefunded bonds herein authorized, unless the holders of such unrefunded bonds consent in writing to the maturities and to the interest rate or rates of such proposed refunding bonds.

SECTION 12. The provisions of this ordinance shall constitute a contract between the Village of Arlington Heights and the holders of the bonds herein authorized to be issued, and after the issuance of the bonds no changes, additions or alterations of any kind shall be made to this ordinance in any manner except in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, or until such time as all of said bonds issued hereunder and the interest thereon shall be paid in full, or unless and until provision shall have been made for the payment of all of said bonds and interest thereon in full.

SECTION 13. That as soon as may be after this ordinance becomes effective, said bonds shall be executed and be by the Treasurer of said Village sold and delivered to the purchaser thereof, namely, JOHN NUVEEN & CO., of Chicago, Illinois, at a price in accordance with its proposal, the same being $970.00 for each $1,000. bond, and accrued interest from the date thereof to date of delivery, the interest cost of such purchase price being such that it does not exceed six (6%) per cent per annum, based on the average maturity of such bonds and computed according to standard tables of bond values, all in accordance with the proposal of said purchaser for the purchase thereof, which has been accepted and approved.

SECTION 14. That the proceeds derived from the sale of bonds authorized hereby shall be used solely for the acquisition and improvement of the motor vehicle parking facilities herein described, all in accordance with plans and specifications therefor, heretofore approved by the Plan Commission and the President and Board of Trustees, and now on file in the Office of the Village Clerk for public inspection. Any surplus bond proceeds remaining after completion of said improvement shall be transferred to the Bond and Interest Account and applied only toward the payment of principal of and interest on the bonds hereby authorized to be issued.

SECTION 15. If any section, paragraph, clause or provision of this ordinance shall be held invalid, the invalidity of such section, paragraph, clause or provision shall not affect any of the other provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 16. That this ordinance after its passage and approval by the President shall be published in THE ARLINGTON HEIGHTS HERALD, a newspaper published and of general circulation in said Village and shall be in full force and effect as provided by law.

PASSED this 21st day of August, 1956.

Talent Show

Meadowites and their friends who attended the talent show last Sunday afternoon are still talking about the wonderful variety show that was staged in the Prospect Meadows park. The committee members, Rosemary Finch, Joyce Ruther, Kay Wilson, Kay Sepke, Chris Pelletier and Rita Durec, responsible for gathering and presenting the talent are certainly to be congratulated on the excellent job they did. The difficult task of selecting the 2 winning acts was very well handled by the following judges: Kay Sepke, auxiliary president; Mrs. Pearl Jost, Ruby Polly's mother, and Mrs. Brown, Pat Riley's mother.

Toney Toner and his son, Billy, took top honors with their Hawaiian hula and Judy Weisenbach and Gail Streich were second place winners with their pink elephant dance. Other acts on the program, all cleverly announced by Joyce Ruther, were a harmonica duet, small fry fashions, adult square dance, Virginia reel and adult fashion show. The final act, Kay Wilson's adult fashion show, brought down the house with the antics and feminine costumes of high fashion models, Don Finch, Bert Ruther, John Wrath and George Hehnen.

Also contributing to the success of the talent show were Larry and Barry North, who played their records and furnished the amplifying system, and members of cub scout dens 12 and 13, who collected the admission. The cub scouts also conducted a flag ceremony and presented and retired the colors under the direction of Ed Moeller and the harmonica accompanyment of "Taps" played by Ed Cody and his son, Dick.

Cub Scouts

A combined meeting of cub scout dens 12 and 13 was held last Thursday at the home of Ed Moeller. Present were Jay Chaiser, Bill Cody, Tom Seymour, Jim Kandul, Wayne Harland, Dick Moeller, Bobby Webber, Gregory Wehrheim, Richard Hehnen, Tom Hemesath and Bobby Orlowski.

Bobby Orlowski is a new member, who will be inducted into scouts at pack meeting in September. The main purpose of the meeting was to practice the flag ceremony, which the boys conducted the following Sunday at the talent show.

Stork News

A son, John Mark, weighing 6 pounds 12 ounces, was born to Mary Jane and John Norris at 10:30 p.m. last Saturday evening in Great Lakes Naval hospital. Anxiously awaiting the arrival home of their new brother are the Norrises' other 3 children, Dwight, Leslie Ann and Rodney.

John Norris, who himself was confined to Great Lakes Naval hospital recently, recovering from a serious attack of pleurisy, was home for the weekend, but returned Monday morning for further treatment before receiving his final relase.

Mrs. Tom McFarland, John's sister, who came from Pittsburgh to be with the Norris family while John was hospitalized, left Monday morning to return to her home. Raymond Fromme, also of Pittsburgh, arrived at the Norris home Monday to join his wife, Gloria, Mary Jane's sister, who has been visiting here since August 3. The Frommes plan to vacation in the Chicago area and also lend a hand in the care of the Norris faily.

In Hospital

Ray LeBrun entered Resurrection hospital August 11 for a recurring heart condition. His condition is improving satisfactorily and Joyce hopes to have him home again in a few weeks.

Bruce Blim, son of Bob and Marge Blim, was rushed to Evanston hospital the morning of August 15 with alarming symptoms. Immediate treatment soon brought him out of a coma and during his 3½ day stay at the hospital numerous tests and X-rays were taken to determine the cause of the attack. He was released from the hospital Saturday afternoon feeling quite well agin. The family will hear the results of the tests later this week.

Birthday

Ricki Sue Halabrin, daughter of Richard and Betty Halabrin, celebrated her third birthday Saturday. Joining Ricki in her home for party fun and refreshments during the afternoon were her playmates, Michael Daniels, Dawn and Toni Ulan, Debbie Sage, Billy Rutkowski, Michael Smith and her sister, Heidi. During the evening Ricki Sue was again the guest of honor when the following relatives arrived to extend their best wishes and enjoy birthday refreshments Mr. and Mrs. Cadra and son, Dicki, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Mikolasek.

Items You Need for Going Back to School!

SPORT COATS: are increasing in wardrobe importance, and well-dressed men, who would own several, can choose from the widest-ever array of new fabrics, styles and colors. Leading are the two button, three patch pocket, center vent models.

SLACKS: Wear blending or contrasting slacks with your sport coat. The most style-important tones are charcoal, charbrown, char blue, medium grey. Flannels, worsteds, gabardines are always correct. Well-chosen slacks add that touch of smartness to your wardrobe.

SHIRTS: Button-down, wide spread and round eyelet collars in broadcloth and oxford are the most important styles. Light blue, and yellow, will be the smart "high" shades in colored shirts. Button or french cuffs are equally popular.

SPORT SHIRTS: Most wanted sport shirt fabrics are cotton ginghams, wools, and man-made fibers. Plaids, checks, and solid colors reign supreme. Choose these shirts wisely and in a fair abundance, because they will be used very often.

NECKWARE: Observe the rule of contrast between tie and clothes when donning sportswear. If shirt and/or jacket is boldly patterned and colored, choose a solid color tie. Knits, wools, and Repp stripes lead the fashion parade.

SOCKS: Argyles, checks, plaids, and bolder plain colors have come into their own. Pick socks that blend with your whole ensemble, and that are sturdy enough for campus wear. Wool, cotton, and nylon serve as your best choice for long-wearing fabrics.

TOPCOATS: Tweeds and gabardines lead in popularity. The well-dressed man needs at least 2 topcoats. A tweed for casual wear and a styleful gabardine for dress-up occasions. Ragland sleeve and fly-front take first place honors in correct campus wear.

GLOVES: On the campus gloves serve a utilitarian purpose. Loose slip-ons of pigskin, buckskin, or goat are comfortable and give plenty of wear. Some have linings for extra warmth. Choose one style for dress and one for general use.

UNDERWEAR: Underwear is one item you never seem to have enough of. Stock up on tee shirts, underwear tops, boxer shorts or briefs. If your school offers winter sports, it's wise to have at least one suit of "longies."

SWEATERS: Sweaters are probably one of the most important parts of your wardrobe. You will use them almost constantly for casual wear. Cashmere, orlon, and wool rank as favorites in both long sleeve and sleeveless pullovers.

PAJAMAS: Broadcloth and flannel pajamas are the most wanted fabrics. Both come in pullover or coat style. Four or five pairs should fit your needs perfectly. Don't forget you'll need a robe also. A wool and/or rayon one should take care of that.

HATS: Narrower brims and tapered crowns without side dents are "top" styles for most all localities. Color should match or blend with the color of clothing. A hat gives you that smart, correct look for dress wear.

Open Monday and Friday Evening Until 9 P.M.

The past week Miss Grace Woodruff of Lansing, Mich. has been a guest at the home of Ralph and Helena Woodruff. August 14 Mrs. E. G. Walker and a companion from Detroit stopped in the Meadows on their way to Wisconsin to visit the Woodruffs and enjoy dinner with them.

Janet Hollen's mother, Mrs. Hollen of Baltimore, has been visiting Janet and Ruth Bolling for the past few weeks. She is planning to return to Baltimore some time this week with her son, who will drive down here for her from Baltimore.

Ruth and Janet have just come to the end of their 3-week vacation, which they spent enjoying themselves at home entertaining and making short trips.

Guests for the day at the home of Bert and Joyce Ruther were Mrs. Helen K. Ruther and the Misses Mae and Katherine Kennedy. Everyone enjoyed the afternoon at the talent show before returning to the Ruthers' for dinner.

MRS. MURIEL MILLS, dance instructor of Arlington Heights Junior Cotillion, presents cups to dance contest winners Steve Scott, Eleanor Berg, Bill Burfeind, Diane Waterman and Kurt Zimmerman. Lutherans To Build 200-Bed Hospital Near Des Plaines

The board of trustees of Lutheran Deaconess hospital of Chicago Thursday gave unanimous and final approval to a proposal to erect a 200-bed general hospital and nurses residence on a 24-acre site on Dempster st., east of Maine Township high school.

Dr. N. M. Nesset, of Dundee rd., Palatine, president of the board of trustees, announced that the hospital will be known at Lutheran Community hospital.

It will be located on the southwest corner of Dempster st. and Western ave., on 24 acres east of the high school athletic field. The site, already purchased, will allow sufficient room for expansion and off-street parking in addition to the 2 structures.

"This location will serve the many rapidly-growing suburban communities greatly in need of hospital beds, as well as serving north and northwest metropolitan Chicago," Dr. Nesset observed.

THE BOARD of trustees is making plans for a fund drive to help offset the cost, estimated at between $4,500,000 and $5,000,000.

Dr. Roland R. Cross, director of public health for the state of Wisconsin, has informed the board that its application for federal Hill-Burton grant-in-aid assistance has been approved.

The amount of $1,372,191 in federal funds has been allocated for construction of the new hospital. Finances have been strengthened through a generous grant from the Ford Foundation, amounting to $96,000. Lutheran Deaconess hospital will make available this sum, which was its share of the foundation's $200 million hospital program for voluntary, non-profit hospitals. The grants were for expansion of services.

Construction will start early in 1957 under present plans. Buildings will be of reinforced concrete and brick. As they will be fireresistant, the safety of patients and hospital personnel will be assured. Both the hospital and nurses' home will be air conditioned.

The firm of Burnham and Hammond Inc., architects and engineers, and Joseph G. Norby and John N. Hatfield, nationally-known hospital consultants, have been engaged.

FACILITIES to care for medical, surgical and acute emotionally disturbed patients will be provided in addition to a pediatric section and maternity division.

Other types of service to be included are: pathology department, clinical laboratories, blood bank, isotope laboratory and department of roentgenology. There will also be physical therapy and pharmacy departments and supply, emergency, examination and consultation rooms.

Lutheran Deaconess hospital will continue to operate at its present location at 1138 N. Leavitt st., Chicago. Next year they will mark its 60th anniversary.

LUTHERAN Deaconess hospital is fully accredited by the Joint Commission on Accrediatation of Hospitals and maintains an approved school of nursing.

Superintendent Virgil W. Nelson indicated that the school of nursing and the internship and residency programs will be transferred to the new hospital.

I lost control of my car and crashed into a store front. I could hardly believe the bill for property damages . . . $7,000! My Auto Liability covers only $5,000. Could I have been covered to $10,000 for just a dollar more premium?

Arlington High School Football Practice Opens Monday

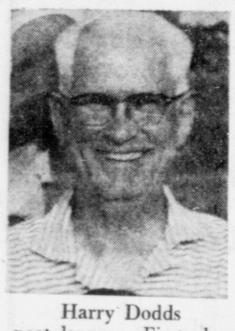
KICKIN' IT AROUND

by Bob Paddock

THE PADDOCK GOLF tournament may just as well be called Mt. Prospect country club tournament, though played at various courses. Nine champions have been proclaimed in the 7 tournaments, 2 of them ending in ties. Teams that compete at Mt. Prospect country club have won 7 of those titles. Only non-conformists have been Rob Roy league entry in '52 and Roselle league entry in '53.



Harry Dodds

Here are a few of the "repeats" of the tournaments: Capt. Harry Dodds of winning Whitton Realtors captained the winning Mt. Prospect Hardware team in '54. Whitton-sponsored golfers also won top honors in a tie in '53. Sunday's title was the fourth in a row for the same Mt. Prospect league. First champ in 1950 was Arlington Bank of Arlington Heights league competing at Mt. Prospect. Movies of this year's tournament were taken by non-competitor Norm Clucas of Roselle, a 1953 champion. Dodds and Harold Thorsell of Roselle were the only previous individual champs competing in this year's meet. Two men, Al Griffith and Bill Grandstaff divided the dozen golf balls for low individual net.

The 300 net was a little above the average of the previous 6 tournaments. Winning team scores have been 285, 301, 286, 290, 303 and 284. Griffith was the first golfer in the history of the tournament to make par, a 37-36-73. Paul Troyke of Roselle opened with a blazing 35, 2-under, the first 9, but tapered to 39 for a 74 actual. He was the only scratch golfer in this year's meet. Mike Graft almost missed the tournament due to a flat tire, but roared into the ground just as his foursome was about to start without him. And if anyone found a Navy blue sweater on the course, it belongs to Al Griffith at Palatine 1284-R.

A FEW OF THE CHANGES involved in the 1956 high school code are: (1) Rubber covered footballs approved by the National Federation are given legal status. (2) Mud cleats longer than 7/8 inches are illegal. (3) Player other than the Captain may request a time-out if approved by Coach. (4) After all cases where a time-out is charged to the referee, the clock is started when the ball is ready for play.

(5) If the receivers touch a kick beyond the scrimmage line, the next down is first unless there is a foul prior to the touching. (6) If a kick in flight touches a member of the kicking team beyond the scrimmage line it is fair catch interference even though no receiver is near enough to make the catch. (7) Sideline coaching has been more clearly defined and need for penalizing is emphasized. (8) Situations are listed in which the penalties for fouls are automatically declined or accepted.

JOHN DEININGER of Arlington was the only Bear suffering serious injury in the Cardinal game Saturday night . . . John is believed to have suffered cartilage damage in a knee with X-rays this week determining how long he would have to be out of action . . . In event an operation is necessary, John will be hospitalized . . . Among those asked to report early for football at Morningside college at Sioux City, Iowa, is Larry Hapke of Palatine . . . Otto Graham will be inducted into football's hall of fame between halves of Northwestern-Purdue game Nov. 17 . . . He still holds 9 all-time NU records: single game, most points, 27; most TD's, 4; most completed passes, 20; most yards gained by passing, 295 . . . He also holds record for most points, 61, for the season and longest punt return, 93 yards against Kansas State in '41.

Cross country is still gaining popularity in high schools with 113 schools competing in state meets last fall . . . This year district and state meets will be held Oct. 27 and Nov. 3.

East Aurora's Chuck Teuscher, football end, cager and track star, will enroll at Michigan . . . George Halas believes 8½ million persons will be watching Bear home games on TV, outside the Chicago area, of course . . . He'd like to televise the road games, too, doubling his present take of $200,000, but cannot as long as the Cardinals are still in town . . . Named on Illini grid roster are lettermen Clem Ryan of Maine, Don Fenner of Lake Zurich and Bob Norman of LaGrange . . . Fenner will be a junior quarterback, Norman soph tackle . . . Harry Jefferson has a 4.7 yard average for the Illinois in 2 seasons of grid play.

Now being started is a 9-hole golf course along Northwest highway between Palatine and Arlington, par 35, with seeding slated to be done in September.

A football boom is coming up on almost all fronts this fall with the pros as well as collegian promoters expecting big things at the ticket windows . . . The Yankees are top family producers, too . . . They boast a total of 49 kiddies . . . Tom Prucha, Downers Grove and West Suburban loop's outstanding twirler, represented the Chicago area in the Hearts prep all-star game in New York Wednesday . . . Tom gained the berth because of his shutout ball for 3 innings in the suburban-city game in Chicago this sumer after a 22-7 3-year record for Downers . . . Earned run average in those games was 0.75.

WE'VE ALWAYS WONDERED how the good people of Gibson City could stand the smell of the grain plant along route 47 west of the city . . . A fellow editor once told us "you ought to smell the soya plant the other side of town" . . . Which brings to mind that Dike Eddelman, former Illini star, has been named plant manager of that soya plant . . . Charlie Pond, ever-popular gymnastics coach at Illinois, has been invited to help judge the Olympics in Australia.

Glen Volkman of Itasca has been awarded a 4-year Chick Evans scholarship to Wisconsin . . . Glen caddied at Twin Orchard 8 years, graduated from Fenton last June, was sports editor of school newspaper in addition to competing with basketball and golf teams.

Dave Kaiser, whose field goal won the Rose Bowl game for Michigan State, was christened Dave Kajzerkowski . . . Jim Regan, newly promoted head football coach at Morton, will have 13 assistants in an effort to lift the team into Suburban league contention . . . Reporting early for football at Indiana is Ted Ross of LaGrange . . . After Indiana dieted tackle Larry Essenmacher from 235 to 205, hoping to gain more speed, he had lost so much strength the coaches are now fattening him again to 225, expected ideal weight in his case.

Midget Football In Park District's Recreation Card

Midget football will highlight the fall part of the Arlington Heights Park district's outstanding recreation program for the fourth consecutive year.

This fall the program will get underway on September 1 and all boys entering the 6th, 7th, and 8th grades are welcome in the program as long as they live within the limits of Arlington's Park district. On the initial day at 9:30 a.m. all boys interested are to meet with the coaches at Recreation park where complete instructions on practice times and schedule of games will be announced.

For those parents who are skeptical about their boy playing football, it should be noted that there have been no injuries other than the usual run of bumps and bruises since the program originated in the fall of 1953. The entire program is designed to teach the boys the fundamentals of football and the proper good sportsmanship conduct. It helps to build leadership early in the lives of our youth and the necessity of working together as a team.

THE DISTRICT will again be divided into 4 sections with the Bears located in the northwest sector, boundaries being North Dunton Street to east and the Northwest Highway to the south. The Cardinals will be in the southwest area bounded by South Dunton on the east and Northwest Highway to the north. The Packers squad will be bounded by North Dunton to the west and Northwest Highway to the south leaving the Lions in the southeast part of the district bounded by South Dunton to west and Northwest Highway to the north.

Each squad will be composed of 2 teams, a lightweight team made up of boys weighing 105 pounds or under, and the heavyweights made up of boys over 105 pounds.

Each boy will be given opportunity to perform every Saturday as equal number of games will be scheduled for both the lightweight and heavyweight squads.

All boys participating in the program must have a permit card signed by their parents and this card may be picked up at the Park District office in the fieldhouse before September 1. Any boy who has any part of the necessary football gear is urged to use it as the park district has only a limited supply due to several boys failing to return their equipment after the '55 season. If any boy still has a part of the uniform, please turn it in on Saturday, Sept. 1.

A large turnout is expected so get your card early from the fieldhouse. (Sp

MP All-Stars Drop 2 Tilts

by BETTY KIRCHHOFF

The Mt. Prospect Pony League All-Stars lost a doubleheader Sunday, August 19. This double loss eliminated them from the Elmwood Park tournament.

On Thursday Mt. Prospect had beaten Elmhurst in a tight game, 1-0, to advance to the semi-finals. George Bork was credited with the win in this contest.

Sunday they lost 6-0 to Berwyn in the afternoon and in the nightcap Forest Park tripped up the local nine, 6-2.

Grace Urges Athletes To Go To Own Doctors For Athletic Physicals

Because of the great increase in numbers, it is virtually impossible for one physician to give all the athletic physicals now, according to H. W. Grace, director of athletics at Arlington Heights high school. The athlete is urged to go to the doctor of his choice. He may pick up his physical examination card at the telephone desk in the high school office. All football candidates must have their physicals before Monday, Aug. 27, the first official day of practice. All this applies to boys in all 9 of Arlington's interscholastic sports. (SP

Big Auto Racing Weekend at O'Hare

Three big nights of auto racing are on tap this weekend, Friday, Saturday and Sunday—August 24, 25 and 26, at O'Hare Stadium, Irving Park and Mannheim rds., just northwest of the Chicago city limits. This will be the biggest weekend of activity in the track's youthful history.

The busy schedule will start off with the roar and speed of the mighty midgets Friday evening as drivers will be making their final bids to add to their laurels before the season championship program slated the following Friday, August 31. As usual, the open competition banner will provide a large and colorful field of entries from throughout the middle west.

Thrilling modified stock cars will make their first appearance at O'Hare Stadium Saturday under the lights with several special events also on tap for this special program of auto racing. Drivers and cars from any organization anywhere will be welcomed to compete and it should be a spectacular show.

CLIMAX OF THE weekend will come Sunday night as the late models compete in their season championship program to be highlighted by a special title grind pitting the top drivers and cars against each other in a treacherous test around the highly banked asphalt track.

Favored, of course, will be Gene Marmor of Chicago and Elmhurst, Ill., rookie star Fred Lorenzen who are moving into the final stretch of their battle for the late model season title at O'Hare, but neither has by any means clinched the championship.

Out to repeat as victor in a title grind will be popular Tom Cox of Villa Park, Ill., winner of the late model midseason 50 lapper last month at O'Hare. Others sure to be in the thick of things are Stewart Joyce of Indianapolis, Chicagoans Jimmy Maentanis, Howard Thome and Tom Croft, Kenny Paulsen of Stone Park, Red Swanberg of Meadowdale, and many others.

All 3 of these stellar racing attractions will get underway with time trials at 6:30 p.m. First competitive events will begin at 8:30 each night. O'Hare has 8,000 full view, permanent seats and there is ample, off-the-highway parking.

K. Whitton Realty Captures Paddock Golf Tournament

K. Whitton Realty upheld the prestige of the Mt. Prospect Monday night golf league when it became the third straight team from that loop to capture the Paddock Publications Inter-League golf tournament.

The Realty compiled a gross 354, net 300 to edge L-Nor Cleaners of the Friday night league at Arlington Country Club which netted 302 in Sunday afternoon's tourney at Roselle golf club. In 1954 Mt. Prospect Hardware annexed the tourney championship with Mt. Prospect Lions walking off with honors in 1955.

William Salzman, Henry Baylis, Earl Thompson, and Capt. Harry Dodds made up the winning quartet with Salzman stroking a gross 79, net 70 to take individual honors on the champs. Low men of the afternoon were Al Griffith of Cork & Bottle and William Grandstaff of L-Nor Cleaners with net 69's. Griffith shot even par golf with a 37 on the first 9 and a neat 36 on the second 9 with 4 birds included in his rounds.

INDIVIDUAL SCORES at the end of the first 9 for the 10 competing teams showed Whitton Realty way out in front, but L-Nor Cleaners and Cork & Bottle made their moves on the second 9. Top men for the latter 2 teams were Grandstaff and Red Kastner for the second place cleaners and Griffith and Bruno Waara for the third place club from the Old Orchard Scratch league.

Cork & Bottle was the low handicap team of the tourney with its 4 members' handicaps only totaling 18. The high handicap team, Moler's Barber Shop with 63, fired net 320 for seventh place in the tourney.

The winning net total of 300 was the third highest compiled in the 7 years of the Paddock tourney. Records for the meet are a 303 for the highest net and 284 for the lowest net set in '55 by the Mt. Prospect Lions.

Roberto Clements set what is believed to be some sort of a record when he went through 50 games, covering 192 times at bat, without drawing a pass, according to The Sporting News.

Mt. Prospect Lions Rout Builders, 9-3

The Lions' Little League team of Mt. Prospect continued to show why they are the class of the loop as they pounded out a 9-3 win over the Builders at Owens Park, August 16. This was the final game of the season.

The Lions finished with a clean slate in the third round with 7 wins and 0 losses, the only team to accomplish this feat. Lions started slowly in the season, winning only 1 of their first 5 games in the first round. Since that point they have won 12 games, losing only 2.

Palmer pitched for the Lions Thursday, striking out 15 in the 6 inning game. Loose infield play gave the Builders 3 runs in the final inning.

Harland and Palmer hit home runs for the winners, the latter getting 3 hits to pace the attack. Runo pitched effectively until the sixth when the Lions clubbed him for 6 runs.

Luther Rawlings, South Side welterweight, and young Carlo Sarlo from Chicago's West Side, have been signed to meet in the ten round semi-windup in the Chicago Stadium, Wednesday, Aug. 29, it was announced today by Matchmaker Issy Kline.

Issue Equipment Saturday to Soph, Varsity Gridders

Football practice for all Arlington Heights high school gridders will officially get underway Monday, August 27, in accordance with the state high school ruling which requires at least 15 days of scheduled practice before competing in a scheduled game. The Cards will open the '56 campaign September 14, against Leyden of the South Suburban loop.

Equipment will be issued on Saturday, August 25, with the varsity reporting for uniforms between 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. and members of the sophomore squad between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. The frosh squad will report for uniforms on Monday, August 27, between 1:30 and 4 p.m.

Since this year the frosh team plays its first game on the same date as the varsity and sophomores, it is necessary for every boy who is hopeful of playing in that game to report to the frosh coaches on Monday, August 27. Because of the state ruling regarding number of practices before participation in a scheduled game, only 1 day of practice can be missed to be eligible to play on September 14.

Freshmen who need football shoes will be able to purchase them by reporting with the sophomores at 1:30 Saturday afternoon. Other football equipment for the frosh won't be issued until Monday, however.

AS A LAST reminder, all boys must have had their physical exam completed before reporting for equipment. This can be done by the doctor of their own choice but must be completed on the special athletic physical card issued by the athletic department.

In reporting for uniforms the prospective gridder should be certain to bring seven dollars ($7) necessary to cover insurance, towel fee, etc. Each boy must also have in his possession a lock to be used on his football locker.

The varsity coaches will again be "Bus" Ormsbee, head coach; Bob Scott, line coach; Art Serfling, end and J.V. coach. The sophomores will be led by Bill Beckman and Dick Mudge while the frosh coaches of Curtis Larsen, Maurie Kellogg, and Rusty Dowell complete an 8 man coaching staff. (Sp

Redwings Whip Chicago Vets, 8-5, At Skokie Sunday

Arlington's Redwings came from behind to decision the Chicago Vets August 19, and remain mathematically in the title chase of the Greater Chicago semipro baseball loop. Oak Park and Kolski's are running 1-2 in the flag race.

Sunday Arlington travels to Skokie for a league encounter with Kolski's and the Chicago Vets also on the afternoon's program at the Oakton and Cicero diamond.

With Worth AC dropping out of the league it is still indefinite as to what decision will be reached concerning games against the cellar dweller. Last Sunday no game was played between Kolski's and Worth, but it was unknown at this writing whether the former club was given a forfeit win. A decision will be reached Sunday regarding the situation of the Worth team.

OAK PARK'S tight 7-5 win over Skokie pushed the former second place club into a lead of 3 percentage points over Kolski's. It looks like the Sept. 2 battle at Recreation Park between the 2 frontrunners will decide the loop title.

Dick Bokelmann is slated to pitch for the Redwings Sunday and there's a possibility that the right-hander will face Ken Walter, a recent Niles high school grad who was one of the most highly-regarded legion pitchers while hurling for Skokie this summer. Another member of Niles' 1956 club and Skokie's legion team is Ted Pristach who patroled center field for the Redwings last Sunday.

In the 3 previous contests between Arlington and Skokie, the latter has captured 2 victories so the Redwings will have some even-ing-up to do this Sunday.

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McELROY

HIGH SCHOOL football practice opens Monday in all the prep schools in Illinois which engage in the gridiron sport. Most of them will be ready for real football practice for the 3 weeks required before the opening game by state rules by having had physicals and checking out of equipment this week. While practice before August 27 is not allowed most coaches encourage boys to do calisthenics and running in order to be in fair condition before they report for formal grid workouts. As the season opens we have a few observations to make on the subject of football which our readers may or may not like.

We may be old fashioned but we would still like to see a high school game played with the quarterback actually calling the signals.

We would settle for the coach sending in a sub to suggest the scoring play to use when near the opponents' goal line with a tie score or something like that, but we think if sports are to teach leadership, as those who extoll the virtues of the game claim, they ought to give the boys a little experience practicing it. It has become a common sight at high school games to see the coach send in the plays with subs every time a play is to be called on offense and spend most of his time when the team is on defense coaching the boys from the sidelines on what play to expect the opposition to run.

TEN YEARS AGO coaches spent a good deal of time with quarterbacks teaching them what to do under certain situations and developing sound judgment in directing a team under pressure. Now the coach does all the thinking for the boys. We would like to see more teaching of football done during the week and Saturday's game be a test of what the boys learned rather than the master minding of the coach.

We wonder why coaches on the high school level have done this. College coaches who run the whole show rather expect to look for another job if they cannot turn out a winner every few years.

High school coaches are asking for the same treatment when they assume complete responsibility for the plays to be called. Yet coaches more than any other teachers seek tenure and the security of permanent employment, and desire jobs where the pressure of fans is not of the "win or get out" type. Maybe it is because they did not call the plays when they were in school and want to satisfy a craving for leadership themselves, or maybe they just don't have confidence in their boys.

ANOTHER OBSERVATION is that we do not think it matters too much what system of football is used whether it be the T, the split T, the single wing, a spread formation, or some other type. As long as a system has an element of deception it will work if the boys can block. Another point: a team with a few plays well executed may have just as good a record as a team with so many plays they never will all be learned.

The important thing in developing a winning team is ability to coach the boys to block and tackle.

Football is a rugged contact game. A boy who is afraid of contact, and lacks aggressiveness is going to be difficult to make into a good football player. A boy who has these qualities can be developed into a good performer in a shorter time than in any other sport.

WE WOULD LIKE to quote the philosophy of the successful coach of the Iowa State Teachers team, Buck Starbuck, as follows: "Coaches believe in the offense or defense they use and it's extremely unwise to change an entire system because you were sold on a new formation at a coaching clinic. Changing offenses isn't the cure for failures. No offense is any better than the blocking ability of the players and a defense is effective in direct relation to the tackling ability of the defenders."

"If a team loses consistently, its trouble is almost without exception the poor execution of the basic maneuvers of blocking and tackling."

It takes a lot more than weight to make a football player. We have seen teams with 200 pound lines pushed all over the field by outfits weighing in the hundred sixties and seventies. Mooseheart is a classic example of a team of small boys, sometimes under 160 average, who play and beat most of the big schools in the state and nearby states. More than in any other sport intense competitive spirit and the love of the contact in blocking and tackling are the first essentials for success.

SOME DAY before we retire from the educational profession we would like to see a high school team where every member observed the training rules. Palatine has never had one and neither has any of the neighboring schools. There is always some player with ability to make the team who feels that he is good enough to get by without doing what is expected of the group.

It is not so much that violation of a few training rules has hurt the condition of the athlete but the bad effect is on the morale of the group when they know some of the members are not concerned enough to go all the way in contributing to team success.

Willingness to give up something to help the group become a winner makes for high group morale which is essential to success. A boy who plays football or any other sport just to be out with the gang but with no intention of putting himself out to help it win had better engage in some activity he considers really important.

AT PALATINE HIGH we have recently subscribed to the policy that athletic squads should not be cut on the basis of ability. After a few years experience with such a policy we are sold on the idea of no cuts for freshman and sophomore squads except in cases where boys are irregular in attendance or show a bad attitude. On the varsity level it is different. We feel boys should be out for varsity sports for reasons other than just recreation if they are to get out of sports the real values sports can give.

If boys are unwilling to accept the discipline of a rigorous varsity sport, keep in training, give all they have in practice, and contribute to the morale of the group through evidence of a cooperative spirit, they should be cut from the squad.

On the other hand a boy who lacks ability but is willing to do all this and sit on the bench without complaining should be retained and awarded the 4 year service letter for those contributing everything to team success except actually playing the required half of the quarters necessary for the regular award.

ATHLETIC COACHES need the support of the whole student body and the rest of the faculty members outside the coaching staff. Sometimes coaches do not have the whole hearted support of the non-athletic element in the student body and faculty because they give the impression the only important activity in school is athletics. We will grant the athletic program is worthwhile and important, and so is the music program, the dramatics and speech activities, the girls athletics, the student council, etc.

The director of any activity who wants to be successful and have the cooperation and backing of the school, shows an interest and develops a good working relationship with the instructors who direct other activities.

We think it is possible to have a winning football and basketball team, and an outstanding band without having the interests of that activity take precedence over everything else in the school as some coaches and directors would make you believe.

And in the final analysis of the success of an athletic program we would say the real measure of success is not the number of games won, though that is the thing coaches and players strive to attain. The real measure is the type of young men who emerge from athletic training and competitive program. We hope our coaches will teach young men a lot more than just how to master mechanics of sports. Coaches, more than any other school instructors, have the opportunity to guide and counsel young men and influence them to become men of good character and responsible citizens.

THE CUBS of Rolling Meadows have been leading the 4-team pack most of the season in Little League action.

Boosters Host North Chicago Sunday To Conclude Season

by BOB FRISK

Three games in 5 days against a trio of the finest amateur baseball teams in the area faced Arlington's Boosters this week with 2 of the tilts home affairs at Recreation Park.

The locals were slated to host the strong Midwest All-Stars, semi-finalist in the state amateur tourney, Wednesday with the clubs battling to a 0-0 tie in the first meeting. Saturday Arlington will travel to Lake Forest for an afternoon encounter, then Sunday they will host a powerful North Chicago club at 3 p.m. at Recreation Park to conclude the season.

Sunday's game will be the last chance local fans will have to see the Boosters, newly-organized team sponsored by Dick Black, so a good crowd is expected. Going into their last week of play the locals had a 2-3 record with 1 tie against some of the toughest competition in the Chicago area.

AT THE outset of the week Manager Dave Ryden's pitching plans had Johnny Sujack and Bob Hamilton sharing the duties against the All-Stars with Hamilton opposing Lake Forest on Saturday and Sujack toiling in Sunday's home affair. Mike Shanklin, a lefty who has looked good in relief, is also available for extensive duty.

Following last week's 3-2 defeat at the hands of the powerful Chicago Yankees, winner of 48 games this summer, the Boosters battled the Midwest All-Stars to the aforementioned 0-0 tie, then fell victim to the potent Yanks' attack Saturday in a return encounter, 13-5.

Hamilton, a June graduate of Palatine high school, went the route against the All-Stars and hurled excellent ball, allowing only 2 hits in 7 frames. And Bob was facing a respectable club of "name" players.

THE ALL-STARS' first baseman, John Kating, was one of the leading hitters on the University of Illinois nine last spring before suffering an injury; second baseman Hoppe played the keystone for the University of Wyoming; catcher Bill Gawron was the No. 1 backstop on Illinois' frosh squad; and 2 of the 3 pitchers employed by the Stars were Bumba O'Brien, former legion star for Norwood Park, and Ted Langlie of Maine high school pitching fame who is 11-0 with the All-Stars this summer.

Arlington out-hit the visitors, 3-2, in a game marked by good pitching. Ted Bakalar collected a first inning single, Hamilton singled in the sixth, and Stan Fletcher had a safety in the fourth. This trio with the addition of Bob Getts have been the most consistent stickers in the abbreviated summer campaign.

Sunday was just not Johnny Sujack's day. After holding the Chicago Yanks to only 2 hits and 1 earned run in the first meeting, Sujack was tagged for 14 hits and 12 runs as the Yanks outslugged the Boosters, 13-5, at Portage Park.

THE VICTORS started their uprising in the second with a walk, hit, and error bringing in the initial run. They tallied 2 more in the third, 5 in the fifth, 1 in the sixth, 3 in the seventh, and 1 in the eighth. Pacing the victors' attack were Mike Bougdanos with 2 doubles and a triple and 3 runs batted in; Roger Jenne, the hot-tempered catcher with 3 singles, and 6'7" Dick Chadner with a towering shot to right field for 4 bases and another long poke for a double.

Chadner, whom several partisan Yankee followers had labeled "as good" as Jim Hansen, the fireballer who struck out 16 Boosters in the initial contest, was mediocre in his performance Sunday with Arlington looking good at the plate. Fletcher paced the 10 hit attack with a single and home run and Sujack had 2 singles. Getts and Hamilton both collected line doubles.

Shanklin relieved Sujack in the seventh and finished up on a yield of 2 hits and 1 run in the remaining 2 frames for a creditable stint. Sujack had struck out 9 in his afternoon's work.

A complete recap of the season with batting averages and brief comments on the team's personnel and outlook for next summer will appear in next week's paper.

400 Pitchers

The Cincinnati Redlegs have fielded 82 different teams in three major leagues and have had more than 400 pitchers. But, says The Sporting News, Brooks Lawrence is the first Cincinnati hurler ever to win his first 12 decisions. No. 12 for Lawrence came in relief of Johnny Klippstein against the Cardinals, July 7. The previous club record for consecutive games at the beginning of the season was set by Elmer Riddle, who won his first 11 straight in 1941. (Sp

Northwest Obedience Club Holds Meeting, Potluck Supper

More than 38 persons, members of the Northwest Obedience club, Inc., attended the outdoor meeting and potluck supper at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Justin Fleischmann, Ela rd., Palatine, Sunday afternoon, Aug. 19.

The meeting was held beside the swimming pool after the majority of those present had been at an early afternoon swim. Swimming continued as soon as the meeting was adjourned by the president, David W. Terrill, Palatine.

At 5 o'clock the potluck supper was served on the porch and picnic tables were set up in and out-of- doors.

BUSINESS included a discussion concerning the club's annual dinner to be held in October. Present plans are to hold the affair in the Palatine area. Dinner chairman is Mrs. R. George Beatty, Palatine.

Training sessions are held every Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the basement of the Jewel building in Palatine. A new class of beginners started the first Wednesday of this month. Next class will start November 7, for which applications are now being accepted at the training hall.

Training is not confined to Palatine residents and at present Crystal Lake, Algonquin, Bensenville, Barrington, Arlington Heights, Elgin and Cary are among the other communities represented. (Sp

Dan Vittum Cops Junior Legion Batting Crown

by BOB FRISK

Dan Vittum, personable young Arlington outfielder who is captain-elect of the high school football team, an all-conference selection in baseball, representative on the legion all-star squad for 2 years, and a straight A student in high school, added the 1956 Jr. Legion batting crown to his list of personal achievements.

According the figures recently released by the club, Vittum's .292 average was the highest recorded by a regular although Al Sander sported a respectable .375 slate for only 16 at bats. Ed Meinken finished second among the regulars with a .275 mark.

Vittum was near the top of the hitters all summer with only early-season pressure from Lee Magnuson, talented young shortstop-outfielder, who finished at .254. Magnuson started out strong, went into a terrific tailspin which needed a bunt single to record 1 hit in 21 at bats, then finished up with some consistent sticking.

Larry Webber was a streak hitter all season who would tail off for a few games, then come up with a 2 or 3 hit performance. Larry hit safely in only 10 games but still gained a creditable .254 average. Pat Brownell, who went to bat 93 times last summer, was up only 56 times this year as he recorded a .250 mark.

Following Brownell game pitcher Al Smeby with his .240 mark, but after Al, a host of .100-plus hitters cropped up. Jerry Klement had a .197 performance, Denny Thill, after a disastrous start, wound up with .174, Bob Miller showed a .138 average to couple with his fine mound work, and Dick Nickelsen and Dean Skadberg both collected .118 marks. Ed Schumacher and Al Hutchinson had even .100 averages and Johnny Oberg ended up at the bottom of the totem pole with a .067 slate.

Overall, the locals, managed by Lloyd Meyer, won 14 of 23 games this summer and compiled a .219 team batting average. Next year 10 of the 15 squad members will return with Thill available for his third season of legion baseball.

MP Baseball For Boys To Hold Post-Season Little League Game

Mt. Prospect Baseball for Boys will have their first annual "graduating" Little League game Sunday, August 26, at 1 p.m. in Lions Park.

The 2 teams will be made up of 12-year-old boys now on Little League Major teams who will be going into Pony League next year. The game will be played under full Pony League rules.

Any boys who may not have been contacted and who intend to play Pony League ball next year should report to Lions Park 30 minutes before game time. Each boy is to wear his regular team uniform.

The idea for the game originated with the boys themselves and it should be a tight contest. Remember, game time 1 p.m. Sunday at Lions Park!

NU Hopeful, But Has A Long, Uphill Climb

Northwestern university's bid to advance up the Big Ten football ladder this fall will be intrusted to youthful Ara Parseghian who at 33 years of age is the youngest head coach in the conference. The new Wildcat coach has adopted a realistic approach to his assigned task of rebuilding Northwestern's football fortunes.

"We lack overall depth to be a great team this fall," says Parseghian. "But while we are thin at most positions, I feel we are capable of producing a few surprises. The players displayed fine spirit and enthusiasm in spring practice, qualities we were pleased to observe.

"OUR TEAM speed isn't all we'd like but it improved last spring and we plan to stress that department ll fall. Injuries could be a key factor. Our manpower is so limited that the loss of a single player through injuries could be critical."

As Parseghian sizes up the situation, the Wildcat personnel will be pretty much the same as last year minus a dozen players lost by graduation. He estimates that only about a half dozen of the 22 sophomores who have been invited back will figure prominently in the battle for varsity jobs.

Among the more promising newcomers is a pair of fleet halfbacks, Wilmer Fowler of Mansfield, O., and Sam Johnson of Rochester, Pa., who came up with sparkling spring practice performances. The former has an edge in the fight for left halfback while the latter rates No. 2 at right half.

MICHIGAN State's nine football foes this fall are — on the face of their 1955 records — a bunch of real gridiron toughies.

They compiled a total mark last year of 45 wins, 36 losses and 3 ties. Three — Michigan, Notre Dame and Stanford — ranked with the national leaders according to various polls. Only two had what might be termed "poor" seasons.

The teams, in the order the Spartans meet them this fall, and their 1955 records, are: Stanford, won 6, lost 3, tied 1; Michigan, 7-2; Indiana, 3-6; Notre Dame, 8-2; Illinois, 5-3-1; Wisconsin, 4-5; Purdue, 5-3-1; Minnesota, 3-6, and Kansas State, 4-6.

A SQUAD of 64 varsity football candidates, one half composed of sophomores, has been invited by Indiana coach Bernie Crimmins to return to the campus Aug. 30 for opening of the Hoosiers' pre-season practice September 1.

Only 11 of last year's 23 lettermen will be available, but presence of two lettermen from other years and return from service of tackle Conney Kimbo and guard Lou Kollias will give the group a total of 15 lettermen.

Severity of the rebuilding job facing the Hoosiers can be gaged by losses which took one starting end, both starting tackles and guards and the top three at both right halfback and fullback. A highly-regarded group of sophomores brighten the picture but progress of the newcomers won't be aided by a man-sized schedule which lists Iowa, Notre Dame and Michigan State for the first three encounters.

SIXTY-THREE candidates, including 15 holdover major lettermen from last year's fourth place Big Ten squad, have been invited by Jack Mollenkopf, Purdue's new head coach, to report to the Boilermaker campus Friday afternoon, August 31, ready for the opening of formal football practice for the demanding 1956 schedule.

Heading the roster of holdover major lettermen will be the outstanding veteran co-captain trio. The co-captain threesome includes Leonard Dawson, quarterback who has topped the Big Ten in passing and total offense for the past two seasons Lamar Lundy, versatile end who was the iron-man of last fall's squad, and Bob Clasey, hard hitting guard whose all-around play was one of the big factors in giving the Boilermakers the best defensive record in the Big Ten last season.

SEVENTY-THREE varsity candidates have been invited to report for opening of fall practice Sept. 1 at University of Illinois, Coach Ray Eliot announced. Included in the group are 16 lettermen, 9 of whom were considered starters in the 1955 campaign, 22 squad members with junior-varsity experience, and 35 sophomores comprising one of the best yearling contingents Eliot has had.

Eliot's big concern when practice starts will be choice of a quarterback with Hiles Stout, Peoria senior, currently ranked no. 1. He'll face opposition from Chuck Schrader, Champaign junior, Tom Haller, Lockport sophomore, and Bill Offenbecher, Alliance, Ohio sophomore.

The coaches also will concentrate on "breaking in" a sizeable group of sophomores at guards, tackles, and ends, where the Illini must have replacements for graduation losses.

Inverness Golf Club

This is a big week at the Inverness Golf club. Today (Thursday) is the final round of the Chicago District golf association amateur championship tournament which opened Monday. Seventy-three top amateurs of the Chicago area teed off Monday on the first round of the 72-hole medal play tournament. Among the local entries were John Goetz, Mel Earl, Chuck and George Eastman, Jack English, Fred Hertel, Hardy Hodgson, and Phil Prassas. Players with handicaps of 7 or less were eligible to enter the tournament. After 36 holes the field was cut to the 69 low scorers and after 54 for today's final round the best 30 will be competing.

Last Saturday the Inverness Club held a big "splash" party at the pool for parents and kids. Sunday a husband-wife tournament was held. Winners were first, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cunningham, 85-15-70; second, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rueckert, 100-30-70; third, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Smiths, 98-24-74.

Saturday, September 1, a buffet dinner and dance is being planned at the club and Labor Day weekend for the big windup of the year's sports events will be a 36-hole tournament for the club championship in each of 3 classes.

Women Entertain Veterans From Hines

Women of Rolling Green country club, members of the Chicago Swing club, entertained a group of blind veterans from Hines hospital for golf and lunch, August 16.

Twelve teams were able to play in spite of the unpleasant weather. First prize was won by a young man who averaged only 2 putts per green.

The only assistance given these players is in lining up the ball and locating it after each shot. These veterans are all enthusiastic golfers and get amazing accuracy and distance in some of their shots.

This work with the blind veterans at Hines, and also the weekly entertainment for the handicapped at Downey hospital at Great Lakes, is part of the program being carried on by the Swing club and is supported by most of the golf clubs in the Chicago area.

State & Rand picked up 5 points last Friday to pull into the third spot of the Old Orchard Scratch league. They were led by Len Arnold's 35 against Smith & Dawson.

This week, playing against Cork & Bottle, State & Rand could upset the league standings. Also in a threatening position is the second place M. W. Kamps' team, only 4 points out.

Stewart Floor picked up 4½ points from Flaherty Jewelers and are in a position to take over 1 of the top 3 spots. Despite the rain B. Blessing shot a par 36 for Arlington Pharmacy and Stan Fill fired a 1-over 37 for Peterson Floor to win their matches.

Members are reminded to see treasurer, C. Berlin, for the Sunday of golf, October 7, and the banquet on October 13.

3 Teams In Race For Rob Roy Lead

The final night of league play at Rob Roy will find 3 teams scrambling for first place. The fur should be flying thick and fast because it is position night. Stan Fill will be playing Harv Laufmann for top rating of the number 1 men and their teams will meet for the league title.

Prospect Heights Service Station made it extremely difficult for Jacobs Hardware store Tuesday by beating them, 6-3. Walt Wilkerson and Lampert gained a pair of wins and the low net point to make the win for the service station. Jacobs' 3 points were still enough to increase their lead by 2 points because Park Ridge Stop and Sock was trouncing the second place pharmacy team, 8-1. Stan Fill salvaged the only point for the pill peddlers by matching par and winning his match.

Par	454 344 434—35

THE SPARKPLUG behind Park Ridge's upset win over the Pharmacy was Wally Schroeder. Wally won his match and turned in the low net of the night with 30.

Prospect Heights Variety Store was in position to move into the lead but ran into a stubborn obstacle in Gunnells Recreation who beat them, 5½-3½.

Michaels IGA was beaten 7-2 by C. P. Floor and Wall Covering. This was largely due to Len Arnold's 1 over par 37 in the back nine. Len had all pars except on the 16th where he 3-putted for a bogey.

KIRCHHOFF Insurance found Ehler & Wenborg an easy prey Tuesday and whipped them, 7½-1½. The insurance gang won 2½ matches and took the 4 team points hands down plus a low net point.

Dunteman Dairy stroked out a 6½-2½ win over the Hartman House behind Troy Felker's 38 and Ray Meyer's 41. L-Nor Cleaners lived up to their name with a 7-2 "cleaning" of Smith and Dawson.

Next week is the league's last night of play before the 18-hole tournament Sunday, September 9, so be sure to make up your foursome and make your reservations with Pat McDonald, the club pro. Also register with the banquet committee so that the proper accommodations can be made in advance. Women whose husbands play in this league are invited. Hobo Summer In Europe

Wandering Coed Impressed With Rome's Religion, Art

by NANCY EMIG

It all began early this morning when I missed the tour bus for the Vatican.

Being alone in Rome was a little frightening at first, but once I got accustomed to the idea, I decided to make the most of it.

And I did!

All 9 hours of sightseeing, talking to people, and wandering about the city with an Italian dictionary, map and guidebook in hand.

IT WAS A REAL adventure and even with the tremendous heat (115 degrees, official) I enjoyed myself. Nero had nothing on me. Both Rome and I burned all afternoon!

After catching the autobus 3 blocks from our Pensione, and riding about 20 minutes, I found myself at the Piazza San Pietro (St. Peter's Square), wonderfully impressive in its magnificence and beauty.

The Basilica of St. Peter's is the largest church in the world, covering a surface of 15,600 sq. meters. The design is the work of Michelangelo.

The inside of St. Peter's is almost impossible to describe.

IN THE FIRST chapel at the right is a famous group of the Pieta executed by Michelangelo when he was 25. There are 3 others in Italy: 2 in Florence and 1 in Milan.

Under the cupola, the High Altar (or Pope's Altar) is built on the spot where relics of Saint Peter are preserved below. Oonly the Pope may celebrate Mass on this altar.

After wandering about, I met a French student who spoke no English. And while I didn't speak French, he nevertheless escorted me to the Vatican museum.

It is only open from 9 to 2 and since I didn't discover it until noon, I had to hurry.

Stopped first at the Sistine chapel, considered most beautiful in the world. Here Popes are elected and principal pontifical functions take place.

The ceiling of the Sistine chapel is also the work of Michelangelo who started it in 1508 and worked continuously for 4 years in order to complete it.

My favorite scene and one of the best-known and admired is the Creation of Man. Unfortunately, the ceiling is beginning to deteriorate and this is quite noticeable.

AFTER THE CHAPEL, I hurried through the Borgia apartments and on to the Raphael rooms, a series of rooms done by French painter Raphael and his students.

It is quite a sensation seeing all these famous works of art in person after reading and studying about them in school.

It's strange how unreal the real can sometimes be.

Necessity And Value of Scrap Helps Keep Europe Clean

by BILL DILLINGHAM

In Europe, almost everything has value. The people cannot afford to waste. Here are some of the differences between America and Europe on this subject:

Coffee beans are ground into a fine powder for the European housewife. Much less gets wasted. The coffee one drinks is partially a suspension.

A pilot light for a gas stove is rarely used in Europe. It is considered a loss of gas. Striking an extra match to light another burner might not be done. Transferring the flame with an old matchstick or piece of paper is more in order.

TO COUNTER the risk of having a milk bottle destroyed, companies slap huge deposits on them. In Italy it is 100 lire (17 cents), France 15 cents, Spain 10 cents. Converted to local standards of wages, these deposits are tremendous.

Motor oil, after it has lubricated an engine for several thousand miles, is not withdrawn and discarded. It finds its way to purification plants after which it is again sold and used in oil stoves.

Butcher shops do not hand out free bones for Rover. Only a customer of very long standing will rate 1 without cost.

HUNTERS, although there is very little to hunt, save the shells for re-use.

In some areas, even ordinary stones have value. Denmark "fishes" stones from the sea bottom through the efforts of divers. In the Copenhagen commercial telephone book, there are several pages listing companies engaged in this work.

In other places, men with wagons do the stone collecting. Upon delivery to factories and depending upon the area, about 3 dollars per ton is paid.

Cigarette butts, of course, represent old business. Collectors are most numerous in Spain and Italy.

IN PARIS, squads of people comb the city's trash cans with extreme thoroughness. A blanket is laid down, the can's contents dumped completely, and every scrap of paper (no matter how small), sliver of metal or piece of bread (for animal feed) is set aside.

Wooden or cardboard boxes are not given away by shopkeepers. If a boy wants to build a scooter, he must buy the wood.

Tinfoil is not used on most brands of cigarettes.

Very rarely does one see a tin can just lying around. It, too, is an item of value like almost everything else in Europe. (Bill

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

Norm Granz, the brilliant young founder of "Jazz at the Philharmonic," keeps releasing 12-inch platters which combine the finest modern jazz artistry with wide-range realistic musical reproduction. The result is highly enjoyable listening, as well as a panoramic survey of topnotch musicians and their individualistic styles.

We enthusiastically recommend the new Norgran MGN—1081 12-inch waxing, "Ellis in Wonderland." The pun is perty, and so is the performance, for it features the imaginative guitarist Herb Ellis, a superbly creative jazz musician. The pun is also on purpose, for Herb read the Lewis Carroll classic while a child, and some years ago composed a melody round the story. The title tune begins its theme on a kind of foxtrot, with piquant melody and development, then surges into a fervid jazz beat (to depict Alice's fright at her first adventure in Wonderland), then returns to a minuet and the original theme. The rest of the combo includes Jimmy Giuffre, a magnificent tenor sax artist and Herb's college roommate (Atlantic Records released him for this album), Charlie Mariano, a topnotch alto sax man (Bethlehem Records, his regular label, authorized his participation here), Harry "Sweets" Edison whose nickname indicates what kind of trumpet he blows, the crack drummer Alvin Stoller, and that great Basie-style pianist Oscar Peterson.

TUNES INCLUDE "Sweetheart Blues," "Pogo" and "Detour Ahead" (all contributed by Ellis), "Have You Met Miss Jones," "It Can Happen to You, "Somebody Loves Me' and Giuffre's lovely "A Simple Tune." The chamber style of this jazz combo, with crisp up-close sound, is delectably stimulating. A real jazz gem!

On Norgran MGN—1080, "Lionel Hampton and His Giants" hold forth in one of the hottest rhythm platters of the year. What a combo: Lionel at the vibraharp, Art Tatum at the piano, Harry Edison at trumpet, Barney Kessel's red-hot guitar and Buddy Rich's swinging drums! Two of Edisons numbers, the jaunty "Plaid" and the [illegible] "Verve Blues" (with the [illegible] a Hampton vocal here), [illegible]anding. "September Somebody Loves Me" and [illegible]nificent giveout of "Deep [illegible]ple" round out a terriffic disc, enhanced by some of the cleanest, most natural sound we've heard onlp I (G

Woman Candidate Heads Lohman Advisory Board

Mrs. Helen Benson Leys, of Wilmette, has been appointed co-chairman of the Cook County Sheriff's Adult Advisory council. The council advises Sheriff Joseph D. Lohman regarding problems of juvenile delinquency.

Mrs. Leys, well known for her work in the League of Women Voters and the Parent-Teacher association, is currently the Democratic candidate for Congress in the 13th Congressional district.

Her first public statement as chairman of the Sheriff's Advisory council, made in a televised interview Friday night on Channel 11, was as follows:

"The Sheriff's Juvenile bureau is measuring up to the qualitative standards set by the Department of Health Education and Welfare. The bureau is training workers and officers to recognize the early symptoms of juvenile delinquency, as well as to deal properly with boys and girls who break the law. They are working to coordinate community resources for crime prevention and to direct successful pilot programs in recreation and athletics. What is lacking are the funds for measuring up to national standards from the quantative standpoint."

"In the last session of Congress, the Senate passed Senator Lehman's bill which would have aided local communities in combatting juvenile delinquency. Unfortunately, the bill died in committee in the House of Representatives."(B7

ICC Approves Storage Tank In Elk Grove

The Illinois Commerce commission last week approved Northern Illinois Gas Company's plan to construct an underground propane storage cavern on Elmhurst rd. in Elk Grove township about 2 miles northwest of O'Hare International airport.

The company announced that contracts will be let in the near future for the construction of the cavern which will be mined out of rock about 280 feet below the surface. It hopes to get under way early this fall on the first phase of the project, sinking a 42-inch shaft into the ground.

Mining the rock for the cavern is planned for this winter with completion of the operation sometime next year. The cavern is expected to hold approximately 8,000,000 [illegible] liquid propane which will be used to augment the utility's natural gas supply.

TENDER ROMANCE between stars Tyronne Power as the famed piano stylist and Kim Novak is seen in Columbia Picture's "The Eddie Duchin Story." The film, in brilliant CinemaScope and Technicolor, starts Sunday at the Catiow Theatre in Barrington to open a four day engagement.

"Seven Year Itch" Opener For Des Plaines Thespians

Des Plaines Theatre Guild will open its 11th season with the presentation of the comical Broadway hit, "Seven Year Itch," Friday Sept. 21 at the Rand Park theatre, 2025 Miner st.

Many Guild members have participated in professional vehicles, also radio and television. Two members at present are trying out for plays in New York for the coming theatrical season. As recently as 1954, Guild members played a professional schedule of summer stock at Chevy Chase in Wheeling.

Apart from reaching dramatic heights, the Guild attained technical success in set changes and costuming of the play "Liliom" during last season and in set construction in a benefit played at Maine Township high school. Rod Ruth, a dyed-in-the-wool Guild member, who is a syndicated cartoonist and professional illustrator, designed and directed construction of a two-floor stage setting at Maine, which was marked by critics as worthy of the best Hollywood or Broadway staging.

MUCH OF THE Guild's fame in the midwest can also be attributed to its director, James Hughes, a resident of Des Plaines. Hughes, a perfectionist, is the type of director who demands an actor bleed when he is stabbed. The result is showmanship and deep satisfaction from the standpoint of realism to the audience.

The Theatre Guild ticket manager (TAlcott 3-2216) has season tickets. (B7

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it true that women are shaking hands more than they formerly did?

A. Although society still does not require it, women are shaking hands more than they used to. And I'm all for it. Nothing can take the place of a sincere hand clasp when meeting a friend or acknowledging an introduction.

Q. Is it necessary to write a "thank you" note when one has been entertained informally at dinner?

A. No; when leaving, be sure to tell your hostess how much you have enjoyed your evening, and then sometime later invite her to your home.

Q. How should a divorcee sign her name if she retains her ex-husband's surname?

A. She should use the surname of her former husband, prefixing her maiden name, as, "Mrs. Shirley Carter Johnson."

Q. How does a woman introduce her husband?

A. To friends, as "John," and to acquaintances as "my husband." "The two names of safety are my husband" and "my wife,' since they are proper no matter to whom you are talking. In business, "Mr. Travers' and "Mrs. Travers" are quite correct.

Q. When there is no one waiting on table and the serving dishes are passed from hand to hand, are they passed to the left or to the right?

A. To the right, so that the person receives the dish in his left hand and helps himself with his right hand.

Q. What is the correct amount of a tip to an airline stewardess?

A. Please do not offer any tip to the stewardess, the airlines having rules against this.

Q. What is the suggested wording to engrave on the announcements of the second marriage of a widow of mature years?

A. "Mrs. Robert Raymond Simpson and Mr. Philip John Adams have the honor to announce their marriage on Saturday, the sixteenth of June, at Louisville, Kentucky.

Q. How can an unmarried woman, living in a hotel or boarding-house, return hospitality shown her my married friends?

A. One good way is to take them to dinner at a hotel or restaurant.

Q. Is it proper to tip the soup plate at the dinner table in order to scoop out all the soup?

A. This is all right, provided one can accomplish it in an inconspicuous manner.

Q. When a man is invited to be the guest of a woman at a banquet or similar affair, is it proper for him to bring her a corsage?

A. Only if the affair is to be a formal one, and he knows she is wearing an evening dress.

Q. To whom does a bride address her letter of thanks for a gift which has been received from a married couple?

A. She writes to the wife and thanks both: "Thank you for the lovely present you and Mr. Smith (or Jack) sent me, etc."

Home Owners, Farmers, Business Mull Tax Vote

by DICK DUNKEL, JR.

Veteran Illinois voters will recognize an old friend in the voting stalls November 6.

The old friend—battered and blue with frustration—is the bearded Blue Ballot revenue amendment which seeks to give the state legislature power to revise state tax laws which trace their descent back to the Indian fighting days of 1848.

Five times since 1916 the revenue amendment has raised its now-greying head in November. And 5 times it has been defeated. In 1952 it poled almost 800,000 more yeas than nays, but fell short of the two-thirds majority approval required by constitution.

Already interested agencies around the state are grinding out literature on the subject designed to garner votes for or against as the case may be.

FARMERS AND small property owners in general seem to favor the revenue amendment. The Illinois Agricultural association, County Farm bureaus and the League of Women Voters are backing the amendment in the belief that it is needed to do away with inequalities in the present law.

These organizations contend that tangible property now carries more than its fair share of the tax burden which supports units of local government such as schools, road districts and health departments. They point out that taxes are certain to go up because these governing bodies need more money to cope with a rising population. And if taxes go up under the present laws, farmers and property owners feel the inequalities will grow larger.

Backers of the proposed amendment feel that Illinois needs a broader tax base. As of now all property — corporation, home and farm — is placed in the same class.

A major plank in the supporting platform is that under present laws only taxes on tangible property are collected and that no attempt is made to collect taxes on intangibles such as stocks and bonds.

SOME BUSINESSMEN are steadfastly against the proposed amendment. Recently the board of directors of the Illinois Junior Chamber of Commerce unanimously recommended that the Chamber disapprove the proposed amendment.

The group felt that the amendment would give the legislature "virtually unlimited power" and should be defeated for that reason.

A strong objection to the amendment in the past has been that it would provide the legislature with power to impose a graduated state income tax. The new proposed amendment, however, prohibits a graduated state income tax although no mention is made of an income tax at a fixed rate for all.

Also on record as opposing the amendment are the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce and the Illinois Manufacturers association.

INDUSTRIALISTS point out that many businesses are locating in Illinois because the tax system favors industry, and that constant industrial expansion is necessary to provide work for the thousands of migrants who pour into Illinois each year. Because there are still several states besides Illinois which have no state income tax, objectors to the amendment fear that Illinois would lose some present industry and handicap the state's future industrial expansion if the amendment were approved.

If the Blue Ballot revenue amendment is rejected by voters in November, 4 years will elapse before voters will get another crack at it or a similar amendment.

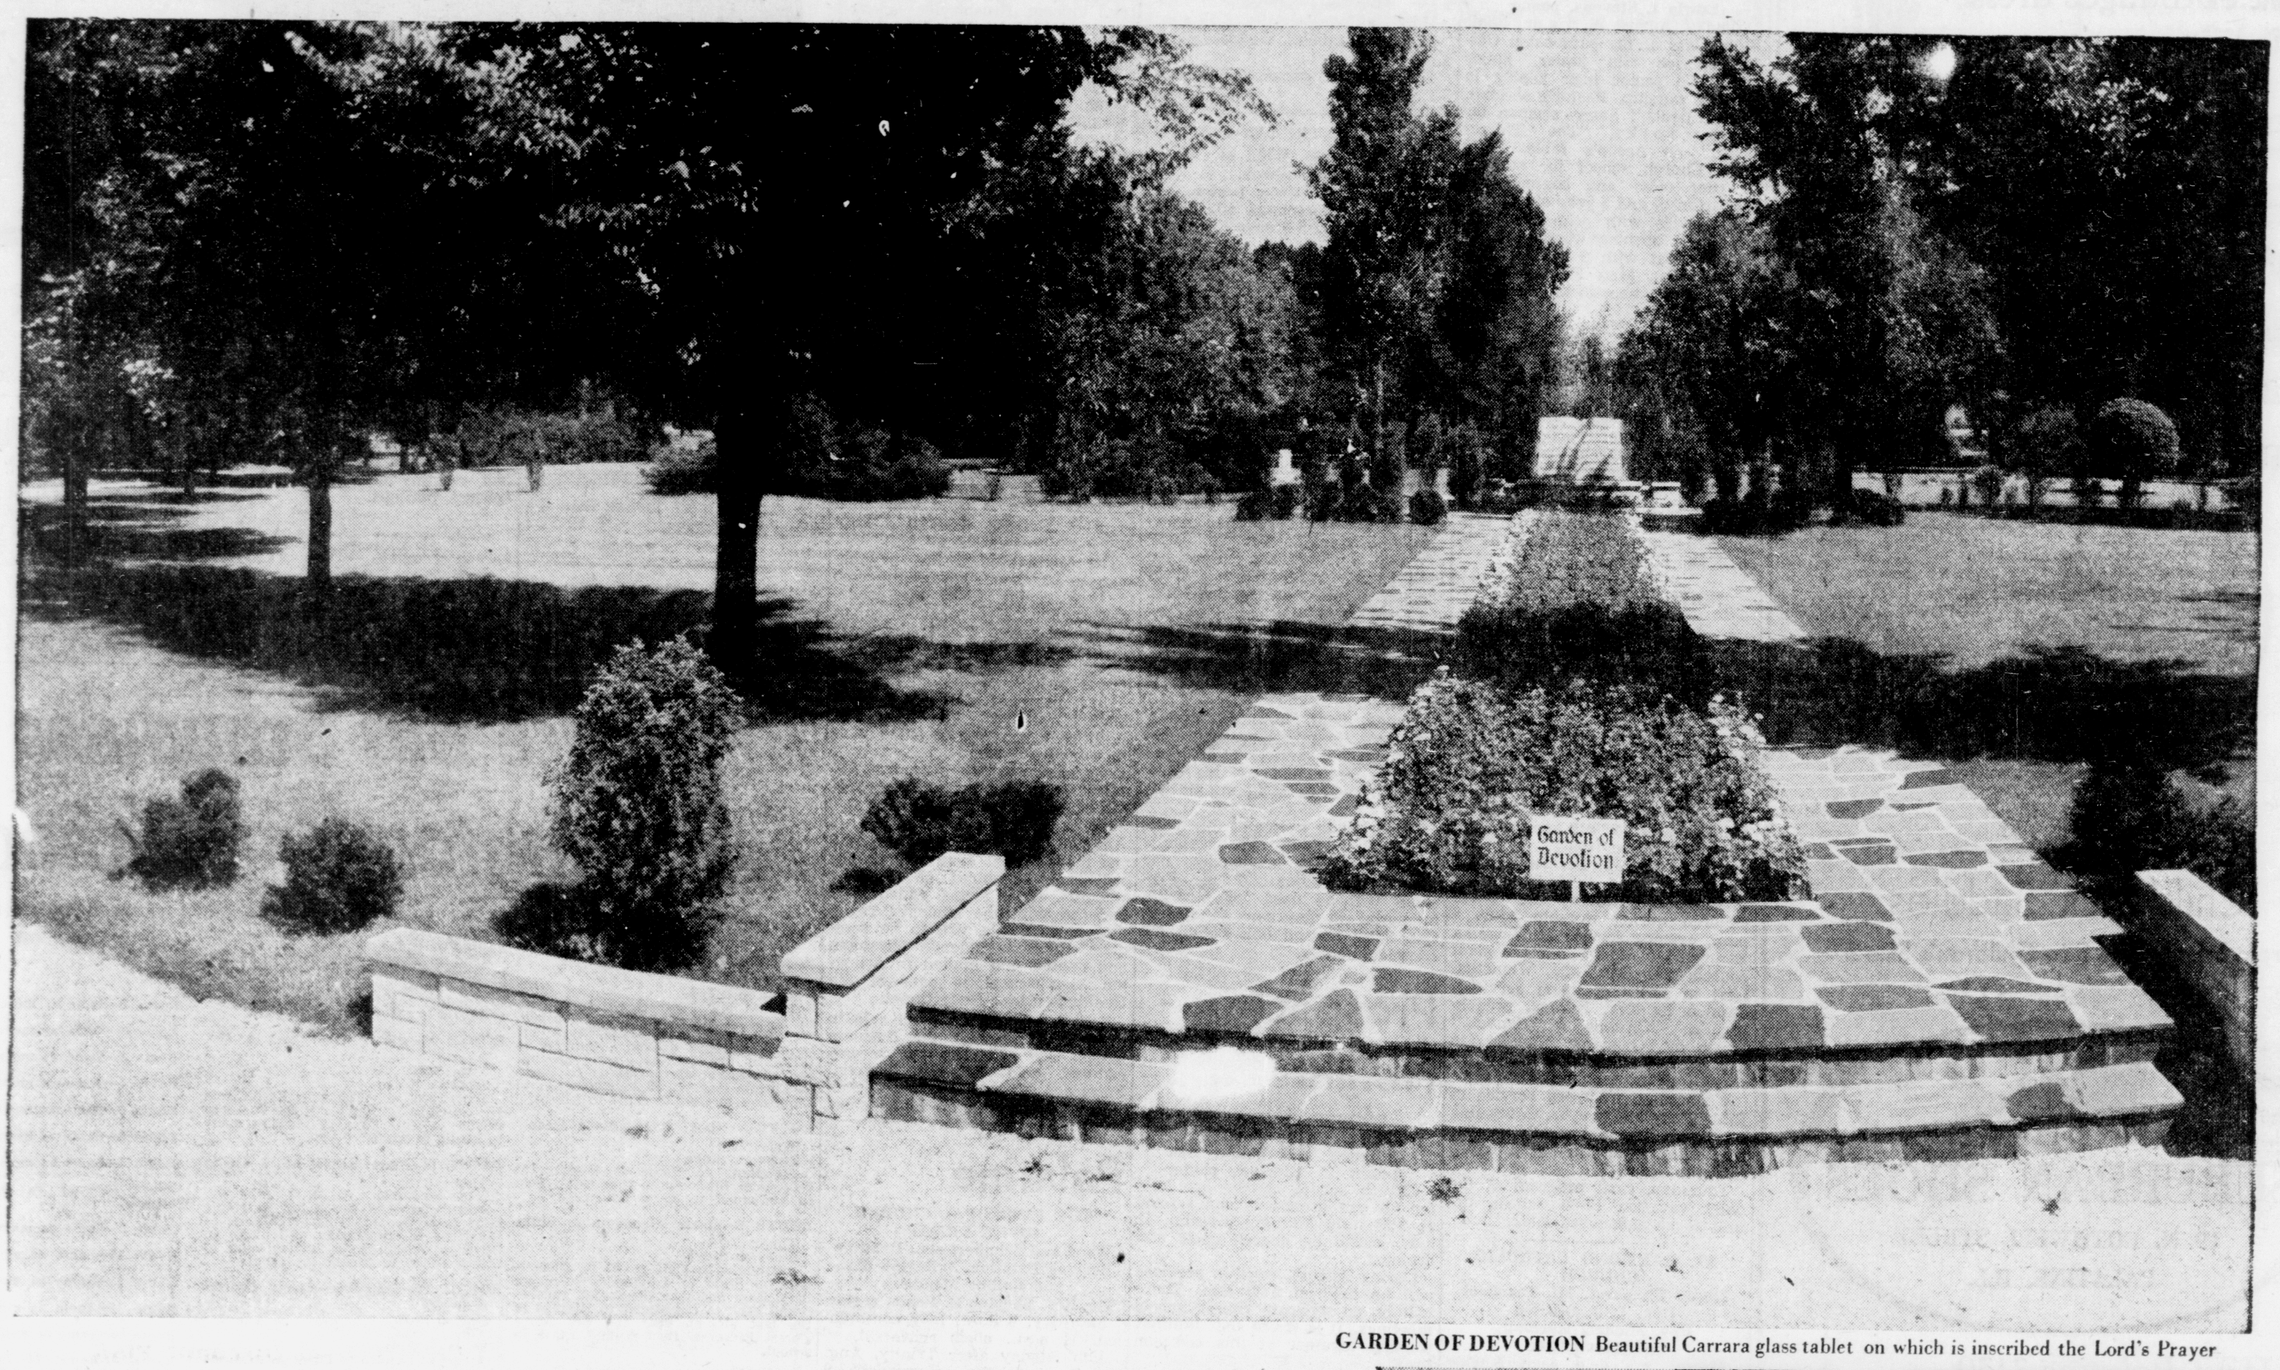
THERE IS NOTHING LIKE BEAUTIFUL

Memory Gardens

IN ALL CHICAGOLAND



GARDEN OF DEVOTION Beautiful Carrara glass tablet on which is inscribed the Lord's Prayer

Here, at last, a magnificent memorial park... a loving, living memorial for the ages.

THE NEW CONCEPT–The superb sweep of sun-lit gardens, the magnificent old trees standing guard, the rich bronze markers set even with the velvet lawns all make Memory Gardens a place like no other. This deeply needed new concept completely erases the old rivalry between tombstones, so sadly noted in obsolete cemeteries. Here—there's nothing to mar the quiet beauty, nothing to disturb the gentle serenity of a well-loved garden. No wonder young folks especially turn to Memory Gardens so thankfully—for their frequent visits now are always a loving consolation—never a cruel penalty.

THE NEW AND WISER WAY–Today, by purchasing memorial property before need, wise and thoughtful adults are quick to realize they are protecting their own interests. It eliminates a costly last-minute choice, always made in grief, nearly always needlessly expensive. The right way, the only way, is to arrange for memorial property out of income—and never out of badly needed insurance or savings. Let us show you the Memory Garden Plan—solely designed to meet your personal needs.

"LAY DOWN THAT BOOK AND LISTEN TO ME" is what Bernie Lalor seems to be saying to Judy Moehling, a teacher in Oscar Wilde's witty battle of the sexes, "The Importance of Being Earnest." The Summer Stage players are rehearsing for performances Friday and Saturday nights at North school in Arlington Heights. Looking on is Karen Baker, who at times is variously described as being devilish and catty. —Staff photo

Gems Of Thought

"MUSIC OF THE SPHERES"

A song is more lasting than the riches of the world.

—Padriac Colum

Harmony, that was it! That was what came out of the silence—a gentle rhythm, the strain of a perfect chord, the music of the spheres, perhaps.

—Richard E. Byrd

Music is well said to be the speech of angels. —Thomas Carlyle

There is music wherever there is harmony, order, or proportion; and thus far we may maintain the music of the spheres.

—Edmund Waller

There's music in all things if men had ears: their earth is but an echo of the spheres. —Byron

"Let there be light," is the perpetual demand of Truth and Love, changing chaos into order and discord into the music of the spheres.

—Mary Baker Eddy

Not Really!

A sobriquet is a nickname.

Preacher Gives Camping Advice

by WILLIAM McGILL

After spending several columns on camping with the McGills in Colorado, this probably should have been the first – if anybody wants to profit by my experience.

Well, file this one; it takes a lot of planning to go camping.

THE FIRST word of advice is, don't buy everything you need.

Campers are a helpful breed, they like to lend – and to borrow. If you are buying equipment, buy what you can't borrow. Then someone will borrow it from you.

Try to pack so that the essentials of the camp can be packed and unpacked without disturbing everything else.

It's difficult to put tents, bedding, food, cooking equipment and clothing away so that each can be removed without disturbing the others.

We kept the tents and bedding on the roof, and everything else in the trunk.

By moving one bag, the food box would fall forward against the spare tire and we could fish almost everything from it (in time).

CAMPERS CANNOT ordinarily boast of the miles they cover in a day. If one stops in time to set up camp and packs up the car before setting out next day, he has to take about four to six hours of daylight driving time.

Camping is not a way to see the country quickly.

On the other hand, the cost of a vacation is not exorbitant when camping.

We did spend 2 nights in a motel when time ran out on us, and we did eat some meals in restaurants.

Other than this, the major costs are for the car and food. People have to eat wherever they are, so this is approximately the normal expenditure.

OUR '55 Chevrolet sedan, well loaded, traveled 3,400 miles for less than 60 dollars for gasoline, oil and lubrication.

A good bit of that time it traveled at altitudes for which the carburetor was not adjusted.

The most bothersome chore is finding ice regularly. It can be found, but it seems to me a chore.

Most maps published by gasoline companies indicate state and national forests. Conoco makes a distinction between those with campsites and those without. Practically all of the National forests and National parks have campsites.

And there is a company called Campgrounds Unlimited in either Blue Earth or Blue Rapids, Kan., which publishes a booklet listing all of the known campsites in the United States and Canada with the facilities available. This is especially helpful in terms of the state parks.

People who have tried both tell me they would rather have a roof rack than a trailer. It balances the load better making for easier driving and less wear and tear on the rear tires.

IF YOU'RE not used to an axe, a saw and hatchet are the best means of cutting firewood down to burning size.

At some parks there is plenty of wood, in lengths from 6 feet up, nine inches or more in diameter. It's easier to handle with saw and hatchet than any other way.

We're beginning to make plans to go to New Mexico next summer.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

While a lenient credit system is the economic mechanism which make the wheels of America's giant economy go 'round, it is at the same time a means of enslaving the wage earner so that, more often than otherwise, he reaches retirement age without a home of his own, or a nickel in the bank.

The enslavement begins, tragically, when a young man and woman are married. Enticed by galaring and attractive offers of beautiful furniture, shining luxurious cars, attractive clothing, and a host of other household furnishings, the young couple easily find justification for plunging head over heels into debt because they "need" these things, and the alluring offer of only one to ten dollars down and ten dollars a month seems an easy way to having all the things they want for that new home.

WITHIN A short while they are up to their necks in installment buying, and unless they are naturally cautious in their approach to indebtedness, they can soon be well beyond their means. There then follows a long period of saving on food, doctor bills, dentist bills, all the really important things they must have for health and happiness, to hold what they have "gained" through installment buying. Loan companies come to the rescue by offering to "lump" all their purchases into one "Small monthly payment," generally at interest rates of 12 per cent or more.

Young folks are not to blame for this condition, which may well be their lot for the rest of their lives. The fault lies in their training, for often they simploy follow in the footsteps of their parents. Naturally these fine things appeal to their desire for possession, and trained psycologists are hired. by many large companies to prey upon their emotions and desires.

IF ONLY young folks could be taught that "a man is wealthy in proportion to the things he can do without"–to buy things as they need and can afford them, rather than just because they want them, they would live happier, healthier lives, and be financially more stable. (G

Building Now? Plan Ahead For Your Air Conditioning

Leaders of the air conditioning industry have predicted that both new and old homes that don't have air conditioning will be considered obsolete in 10 years.

They say that 200,000 of the new homes built this year will have central air conditioning systems. By 1960, the figure will be 500,000, and by 1965, there will be 1,150,000 installations yearly.

Granted that the industry's leaders may be over-bullish in their outlook, the fact remains that air conditioning can be expected to play an increasingly important part in home construction.

MAYBE YOU won't have air conditioning next year, or even by 1960, but you can start planning now and even start to prepare your home for the installation. There's more to it than the system itself. Other preparations must be made. For example:

1. Check the insulation values in your ceiling, attic and sidewalls. Insulation is even more important with central air conditioning than with central heating. There should be four-inch thick insulating batts between ceiling rafters, reflective insulation under the roof. Sidewalls can be insulated effectively for air conditioning by using insulating over existing siding. Insulating siding's half-inch thick base of insulating board helps reduce heat infiltration. With the right insulation, air conditioning equipment can be smaller and cheaper to operate.

2. PROVIDE for control of humidity. There should be a vapor barrier on all exposed earth in crawl spaces. Bathrooms, laundries and kitchens should have exhaust fans. Conditioning air involves not only cooling it but reducing the amount of moisture in it. Reducing moisture reduces the load on the air conditioning unit.

3. Protect south and west exposures from direct sun as much as possible. Plant trees, install awnings, use shade screens, and eave overhangs to keep direct sun rays off the house.

4. Have an experienced electrical contractor check the wiring to make sure it's adequate for handling the additional load that air conditioning equipment will impose.

Consumer Credit In Census Survey

Information on the use of consumer credit, particularly for the purchase of automobiles and homes, will be collected in the August current population survey, according to supervisor Guy A. Lutz of the census bureau's district office at Chicago, which will participate in the survey.

The consumer credit information is being collected for the board of governors of the federal reserve system for use in a study of national consumer credit trends.

Current Population Survey information is being collected locally during the week of August 20 by Mrs. Rosemary Riordan of Chicago. (G

Cook Appointed Chief Of Real Estate Board

Ruth C. Wendt, president of the Northwest Suburban board of realtors announced last week that Robert E. Cook, of Springfield, has been selected to head the Illinois Association of Real Estate boards as executive vice president.

The newly created post was given to Cook by the board of directors at a recent meeting and he assumed his new duties on August 1st.

Miss Wendt stressed the fact that the Illinois association was very happy to have secured Cook's services and that an aggressive program is planned for the coming year.

IN TAKING OVER his duties Coop will be leaving the Taxpayers Federation of Illinois where he served for 6 years as the public relations director.

In his new job, Cook will be responsible for all statewide matters affecting the 47 local boards in Illinois. There are currently 2700 realtors represented in the association.

Hidden Mites Rob Vital Juices From Your Evergreens

Next to the sun, one of the biggest moisture thieves of evergreens is a tiny pest, hardly big enough to see even under a magnifying lens. This is the red spider, which often teems over foundation plantings and other evergreens and is constantly busy sucking out vital plant juices.

Because many home owners consider their evergreens rugged enough to withstand most insect attacks, they rarely are aware of the hidden saboteurs in their plantings, says P. C. Heintzman, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

This is fine for the many red spider progenies, but is particularly bad for the evergreens. The weekend gardener aware of the mite threat usually will get out the handy DDT gun to take care of the infestation.

However, the red spider is not a true insect, and actually seems to thrive on the DDT fillup. But this rambunctious pest is vulnerable to new miticides which garden supply stores now handle. These are usually compatible with other spray materials. Fewer applications are needed than with such old standbys as nicotine sulfate or pyrethrum. Another old standby but still an effective medium is summer oil spray, which kills the red spider in its egg stage as well as in the moving stages.

In addition to chemical spraying, occasional hosings from top to bottom on your favorite plantings will help keep the red spider population under control.

Mood Music Tops In Auto Phonos, Too

What type music does Mr. Motorist like best on the road? Does he travel happiest with BeBop, Bach or Boogie? A survey of Hi-Way HiFi record sales since Chrysler introduced the industry's first auto record player in its 1956 Chrysler and Imperial cars shows that neither "pops" or classics dominate drivers' tastes.

Biggest seller, according to Columbia Records, is so-called "mood music"—popular tunes done in a semi-classical style. Topping in sales all 100 hour-and-one-half records available is "Columbia Hall of Fame," which features the smooth, relaxing orchestras of Mitch Miller, Percy Faith and Les Elgart playing standard selections in fancy orchestral style.

POPULAR WITH parents who motor with restive children are such quieting HiWay HiFi hits as "Peter Rabbit," "Hans Christian Anderson Fairy Tales" and "Rocky Jones and the Space Pirates." Only problem, say parents, is that soon it's impossible to go for a family drive without the space pirates.

Once the tykes are asleep, however, parents can enjoy such other hit "mood" records as Michel LeGrand's "I Love Paris" and "Holiday in Rome"—a couple of subjects certainly suggestive of travel. Equally in demand are Lee Raine's orchestra playing "Top Melodies" and the late Ken Griffen's "Anniversary Songs."

ALTHOUGH 3 "mood" records are sold for every classical selection, the classics have their popularity poll, which is topped by Offenbach's "Gaite Parisienne," Bizet's "Carmen," Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony," and all available selections of Rimsky-Korsakov.

Broadway show tunes also bow to "mood" music about 3 to 1, with "Kismet" at the top in sales and "Kiss Me Kate" a close second.

Motorists who were always too busy to listen at home to Edward R. Murrow's "I Can Hear It Now," are apparently taking advantage of their time in the car to hear this masterpiece. It tops all "documentaries" and accounts for a sizable slice of HiWay HiFi disc sales.

HOME OWNERS' QUESTION BOX

Q—A few minutes after I finished pouring a concrete patio, rain began to come down in sheets and kept up all day. The top finish coating was ruined. How can I resurface?

A—Remove all loose particles and brush on a creamy mixture of cement and water. Then apply a new wearing surface one to two inches thick. A good mix for this topping is one part cement, one part sand, one-and-a half parts pea gravel and five gallons of water per sack of cement.

Q—WE'RE thinking of installing a storage wall to supplement the closet space in our small house. Can this be a "do-it-yourself" project, or must I hire a carpenter?

A—Building a storage wall isn't too difficult for the average home handyman if he makes use of ponderosa pine kitchen cabinets and louvered doors. The cabinets come in many shapes and sizes which can be stacked along a wall in a variety of attractive and useful arrangements. The louvered doors make installation of a full length closet possible. When the job is finished, the clear ponderosa pine can be painted or stained to match the room decor.

Q—OUR WOOD floors squeak and creak annoyingly. Is there a simple, inexpensive way to eliminate this?

A—Powdered soapstone has been found effective. Spread the powder on the flor and wipe it into the cracks with a cloth or brush. Then jar the boards with a rubber hammer to settle the dust into the tongue and groove joints. The powder acts as a lubricant.

THE HIWAY HIFI is a high fidelity auto record player. Small, neat and compact, the unit measures only slightly more than 4 inches high and less than a foot wide. It is mounted under the instrument panel of Chryslers and Imperials and plays through the auto radio speaker.

Each side of the 7-inch records is good for between 45 minutes and a full hour of uninterrupted play. A storage space at the bottom of the unit holds 5 records, which are held flat by light spring pressure which prevents them from warping.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

A. Yes, unless there is an aisle seat. Then he should, of course, sit next to the aisle.

Q. Does a man seat his woman dinner partner on his right or his left?

A. On his right.

Q. When a man invites another man to luncheon or dinner, should the host give the order for both to the waiter?

A. No; he should allow his guest to order first, and then give his own order to the waiter. When dining with a woman, she gives her order to him, and he orders for both.

Q. Is it proper to use the prefix "Miss" on an envelope addressed to a girl of 12 or 14 years of age?

A. Yes.

Q. For what uses only is the napkin at the dinner table?

A. For wiping the lips and the fingers. It is not for the cheeks, perspiration, or the nose. The napkin should be lifted as inconspicuously as possible, and lightly brushed across the mouth — and then replaced on the lap.

Q. When writing a thank-you note to a relative who has sent a check as a birthday gift, should one mention how the money is going to be used?

A. While not exactly necessary, this still is a nice thing to do.

Q. Is it proper for a young man to give his mother's engagement ring to his fiancee?

A. This is frequently done, and is quite proper.

Feehanville School

School will be open with full day sessions in operation Tuesday, Sept. 4. Regular classes will be held from 9:15 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Kindergarten will start at 9:15 a.m. and end at 11:30 a.m. There has been a change in bus companies and the children should be warned to watch for busses bearing the name Harvel Bus Co., Arlington Transportation, and to be at the pickup stops at about 8:30 a.m. Parents of kindergarten pupils will be expected to pay $10 for the extra busses needed, on the day they register, which is August 29 from 10 a.m. to noon. They may be asked to pay another $10 at the beginning of the second semester if it becomes necessary.

Since the school board has assumed the responsibility of operating the kindergarten this year, there will be no charge for supplies.

The following teachers are under contract at Feehanville this year; Mrs. Eleanor Bard, kindergarten; Mrs. Beverly Bailey, first grade; Mrs. Geraldine Gardner, second and third grades; Mrs. Hazel Cavett, fourth and fifth grades; Mrs. Dorothea Winkler, sixth grade; Mrs. Frances Gimsoe, seventh and eighth grades; Mrs. Charlotte Soderland, music, and J. W. Alstrin, principal.

Hot lunches will be served starting the first day of school, and the charge has been increased to $1.50 per week. Mrs. Jean Kramer and Mrs. Mae Schmitz will be cooks this year.

All new students must present a health record or certificate of examination by a physician before they can attend school.

Teachers will attend a workshop meeting Tuesday, Aug. 28, at Forest View school, Arlington Heights. At this all day meeting Miss Lucy Driscoll, assistant county superintendent of this division, will point out the curriculum objectives for the coming school year. The teachers will be divided into panels to discuss the skills that should be taught at each particular grade level. There will be a welcoming meeting here, after which Mr. Alstrin will outline the coming program to the teachers.

Feehanville Little League baseball games are through for this season, except for a few play-off games of one or 2 innings. Monday the White Sox held off the Braves with a 9-2 score. Tuesday the Cubs beat the Tigers 12-5 and Wednesday the Braves edged the White Sox out by one run making it a 11-10 score.

There will be an all-star game at 3:30, August 26, between the Little League team, comprised of the five best players picked from each team, against the Feehanville Braves, Pony team. A large attendance is hoped for that day to give the boys a good version of appreciation.

Team standings to date are as follows: White Sox, 14 wins, 4 losses; Cubs, 10 wins, 8 losses; Tigers, 5 wins, 9 losses; Braves, 4 wins, 11 losses.

A great loss will be felt in next year's Little League when Tommy Hawkins, short stop and catcher on the White Sox, moves up into Pony League. He's top man and a real league player with a record of the highest batting average of .776, 5 home runs, 4 triples and 7 doubles. Bob Stevens, pitcher on the Sox, has a wonderful record of 6 wins and 1 loss. Jimmy Ball has the second highest batting average with .600, Louis Bartucci third, .571, George Grossi, 489, and Timmie Anderson, .411.

The Little League Auxiliary mothers held another meeting last Wednesday night to complete their arrangements for the games party to be held at the school September 28. Every mother will be expected to do her share toward making it a success and a last meeting will be held the Monday before the affair to turn in donations of prizes and returns on tickets. Anyone interested in helping in any way can call Mrs. Pauline Bartucci Va. 4-2461 or this reporter.

Tuesday, Aug. 28, the Forest River Home Owner's Civic association will hold its monthly meeting at the Community house. It is hoped that the regular members will invite neighbors and new comers to the community to attend this gathering to promote greater interest in the welfare and progress of this community.

The Teen-club, a group of young people who are sponsored by the Civic association, held a different and quite amusing dance Saturday night. They went all-out in their efforts to decorate their sox for the "Sock-Hop". Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bischof once again favored the children by acting as their chaperones. Election of officers was held at a meeting before the dance and the new officers for the year are; Margie Kirste, president; Joby Badalamenti, vice president; Jackie Alexander, secretary; Mary Jane Arkell, treasurer; Bonnie Sim, sergeant-at-arms, and Jimmy Doetsch, games chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Phar and children, Kay and Billy, covered quite a lot of territory while on a 2-week vacation. They traveled to Cleveland first to visit an uncle, on to North Carolina and then through Tennessee and the Smokies. Among the highlights of their trip was a ferry ride across the Ohio river between Indiana and Illinois. They stopped at Fairfield to see Irwin's uncle and Billy stayed at Mt. Carmel for a few days visiting other relatives. Roberta developed pleurisy just before their return Monday morning, and is still confined to her bed because of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lingo and their daughter, Cindy, along with their baby-sitter, Fay Johnson spent 2 weeks roughing it at a cottage on Georgian bay, Ontario Canada. It was all wild country as theirs is the only cottage on 100 acres of land, with no modern conveniences. They were able to enjoy the rest and relaxation, just fishing and swimming to their hearts content. Betty caught some beautiful black bass, which made Mr. Lingo quite envious. They had a frightening experience when they found a rattler outside their front door, which they were forced to kill.

Marilyn Roos, nee Sandquist, was a surprised guest of honor at a stork shower given for her by Mrs. Betty Shimmin in her home on Foundry rd., August 13. Guests who had an enjoyable time at the affair were Mrs. I. A. Hanson and and daughter, Janet, Marlene Olson, Bid Levine, Mrs. Cynthia Martens, Mrs. Dorothy Hartwig, Mrs. Edna Gerstung, Mrs. Shauer, Mrs. Inez Brandt, Jean Dick, Ruth Pierson, Reverend Clara Pierson, Mrs. Ruth Bischof, Mrs. Anne Toth, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Jean Kramer. Games added to the evening's merriment and the various prizes which the guests won, being cleverly chosen with the new infant in mind, were turned over to the prospective mother. Mrs. Shimmin then served refreshments to her guests.

A farewell party for Walter Swiatowy, upon his induction, was given for him by Mrs. Anne Stavros a few weeks ago. William, Harry and Cris Stavros, Howie Kurt, Peter Huege, Mr. and Mrs. James Duncanson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Swiatowy and Mrs. Jean Dzwiota enjoyed especially the array of delectable dishes prepared by Mrs. Stavros in the Grecian custom. Walter is now at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., where he will receive his basic training.

It is with regret that the many friends of Ted and Betty Flink regard their departure from the school district. Both have made their mark in the history of the school the past 7 years, with their untiring efforts to help toward the enlargement and improvement of Feehanville. Ted has been the school board president for almost 2 full terms and gave a great deal of time and energy towards a tough goal. Betty did a grand job as president of the PTA last year, as well as various committees she served on many years before. Last year she taught art to the upper grade students to add to their education and find latent talent.

It would take a good deal more space than alloted to write their accomplishments in full, so this reporter will confine herself to an expression of gratitude from all who know them.

The Flinks have purchased a home in Kansas City, Mo. to be near Betty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fitzer, who have been very ill for the past several months. A cousin of Mr. Flinks, also named Clarence Flink, and his family will be the new residents in their home on Westgate rd.

Heartfelt thanks to the Feehanville PTA and Our Lady of Lourdes' guild for the flowers this reporter received this week after a brief sojourn in Resurrection hospital. They are daily reminders of the generous hearted and thoughtful people who have made life in a rural area more pleasant for all.

Birthday celebrants this week and next are: Jerry Alexander, who will be one year old August 23; George Grossi, 12, and Carl Kurt, 13, August 24, and Robert Henning, 4 August 29.

Elk Grove Manor

Cheryl Kim celebrated her sixth birthday August 15 with a luncheon in her home on Lincoln lane. Assisting with the festivities were her grandmother, mother and aunt, Mrs. Robert Kim. Young guests were Peggy Judy, Susan and Sandra Depalma, Margie Moder, Ellen and Steve Ostrowski, Gary Kessler and Roger Kim.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moder and family took a 3-day trip into Wisconsin last weekend. Their first stop was in Appleton and then Port Edwards. Lastly they drove to Loyal, where they visited an army friend of Mr. Moder.

Last week Mrs. Harry Zender was co-hostess to the Itasca Bethany WSWS in the home of Mrs. Harold Duel, Itasca Ranchettes. Twenty one ladies were present and the hostesses served apple and cherry pies.

Cousin visits

Saturday afternoon the Ed Ostrowski family enjoyed a visit from a cousin, Robert Jurgensen, who was recently descharged from the army. He was accompanied by his mother and Mrs. Ostrowski's mother, Mrs. Baur. Mr. Jurgensen's visit was in the nature of a goodbye as he was leaving Chicago to enter a seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ollmann and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ollmann returned Sunday evening following a 2-week vacation, which took them through Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and North Dakota. They visited friends in various places and with relatives in North Dakota. The trip also afforded them an opportunity to visit Garrison dam in western North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. George Horbus, over, Wis. in the north woods Susan and Guy drove to Conarea August 14. They stayed at a lake nearby and reported that both weather and fishing were good. Susan and Guy enjoyed the swimming while their parents reeled in the walleye and bass.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Grothman stayed in the Horbus home while the family was away.

Afternoon gatherings

Guests at afternoon coffee in the home of Mrs. William Noelle Tuesday were Mrs. A. Gathman, Mrs. Fred Bleichroth, Mrs. William Albiniak, Mrs. Benkwitz, Mrs. John Kappa and Mrs. F. J. Kessler.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. William Albiniak and daughter, Carol, entertained a group of neighborhood mothers and children at an outdoor party. Cake ice cream were served. Among those present were Mrs. Fred James Campbell and her 2 daughters, Mrs. John Kappa and children, Mrs. William Noelle, Mrs. Harry Zender and Mrs. Benkwitz.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bleichroth entertained a group of close to 25 relatives at Sunday dinner and supper in honor of the baptism of the child of a near relative, who had recently returned home from service.

Solve Storage

Householders with the outdoor urge, who have no basement and yet need storage for garden and play equipment, have discovered a smart way to get added storage space. Compact units, built against a fence or a house, can be air tight and frost tight if tongue-and-groove Douglas fir flooring is used for the sides and roof. Shingles or composition roof will make the structure watertight. Stain the storage unit to match fencing or house siding. These units can be long and narrow and require very little space.

Businessmen Claim Victory Over Job Discrimination

The problem of discrimination in employment of minority groups in Illinois is being met by voluntary means, declares the Illinois State chamber of commerce.

To support its contention, the chamber submitted findings of a survey of 100 representative business firms which now employ minority group workers.

The survey was conducted by the Illinois Commission on Human Relations. The chamber has published the results for distribution to its more than 15,000 members.

STATE CHAMBER President Louis Ratzesberger, Jr. said, "This impartial survey further demonstrates that Illinois business can and is successfully handling the problems of minority group employment by voluntary means.

"The Illinois State chamber of commerce has opposed compulsory FEPC legislation each time it has been before the Illinois legislature. At the same time, it has been a leading advocate of an educational approach to the problem. To implement its education program, the Chamber has produced and distributed a sound film encouraging the hiring of minority group workers. We are gratified that the survey proves the program is working."

THE SURVEY shows that the basic reason given by employers for hiring minority group workers is that they form a large and ever-growing share of the labor pool. For example, in 1940 the non-white population in Illinois was placed at 393,039. By 1955 this group had almost tripled to reach an estimated 1,086,000.

Among other things, the survey shows that when properly trained and integrated into the workforce, minority group members make good employees.

The survey also shows that while there are problems to consider in hiring on a merit basis disregarding race, creed, color or national origin, these problems are not as great as usually imagined or feared. Handling them sometimes required positive action, but the employers interviewed all agreed that they can be solved.

Death Notices

IN MEMORIAM

Lena Young — In loving memory of my dear mother who passed away 1 year ago, Aug. 29, 1955.
How often do I tread the path
That leads me to the grave,
Where rests the one I loved so well
But whom I could not save.
Long days, long nights, you bore your pain
Waiting for cure but all in vain.
God saw that you were suffering
And the hills were hard to climb,
So he closed your weary eyes
And whispered "Peace be thine."
Loving daughter and son-in-law
Marie and Walter Knicker

Peaches Easy Fruit To Can

Plump peaches are versatile fellows. They always taste good fresh. And canned, they're still flavorful, nutritious and a colorful addition to cereals, salads or desserts.

Peaches are one of the easiest and best fruits to can. Elbertas are now plentiful and a good variety for home canning.

For fine-quality product, Geraldind Acker, University of Illinois foods specialist, says to select firm-ripe peaches that are uniform in quality. They should have a creamy background color; green shows that the fruit is not ripe.

Half a bushel, or 24 pounds of fresh peaches will make about 10 or 11 quarts of canned fruit.

ALTHOUGH EITHER a hot or cold pack is satisfactory for canning, the hot pack will give a more solid pack because the fruit shrinks in the first heating.

For the hot pack, simmer peaches 3 to 5 minutes in a 20 or 30 per cent sirup (1/2 or 1/3 cup sugar to 1 cup water). But don't cook until soft. Pack into containers, placing cut side down and overlapping the layers for uniform appearance. Fill containers with boiling syrup. Process in a boiling water bath for 20 minutes.

For the cold pack, place peach halves pit side down in jars, making a firm, uniform pack. Cover with boiling 20 or 30 per cent sirup. Process in boiling water bath for 30 minutes or in pressure cooker at 5 pounds for 15 minutes. (Fm

Choose Freezer Containers Carefully

Even though you freeze top-quality foods, the final products will score low in nutritive value, taste and appearance if you don't use the right kind of container.

Mrs. Dorothy McIvor, University of Illinois foods specialist, says waxed paper, ice cream and cottage cheese cartons are not proper freezer containers. She suggests using polyethylene bags of sheets, butcher's waxed paper or heavy aluminum foil or containers of aluminum, glass, plastic, tin or heavily waxed cardboard.

Rigid aluminum containers are available now, but they're expensive. They are rectangular and have tight-fitting lids that slide on. Food may be heated in them.

Tin cans used for freezing are best if they have a special enamel lining to prevent the tin from poisoning the food. Use R-enameled cans for red fruits and vegetables and C-enameled cans for foods containing sulfur, such as corn, lima beans and carrots.

Wax wears off waxed containers, so don't use them a second time unless you have them rewaxed.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Pursuant to law in such case made and provided, public notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment to the Illinois Constitution will be submitted on a separate blue ballot to the electors of the State of Illinois for adoption or rejection at the General Election to be held on November 6, 1956.

REVENUE AMENDMENT
Article IX

Sec. 1. The General Assembly may define and classify property for taxation, but all such definitions and classifications shall be reasonable and be based solely on the nature and characteristics of the property and not on the nature, characteristics, residence or business of the owner or the amount or number owned. All real estate shall constitute one class, except that lands used for forestry purposes and mineral rights in land may be classified separately. If any class of property is taxed by valuation, such tax shall be uniform as to the class.

Sec. 2. The General Assembly may levy or authorize the levy of such other kinds of taxes as it may deem necessary, which shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, but shall not levy or authorize the levy of a graduated income tax.

Sec. 3. The property of the State, counties and other municipal corporations, both real and personal, and such other property, or part thereof, as may be owned by, or held in trust for, agricultural or horticultural societies, non-profit hospitals or schools, religious institutions, cemeteries, or charitable institutions and used exclusively for one or more of such purposes, may be exempted from taxation; but such exemption shall be only by general law. In the assessment of real estate incumbered by public easement, any depreciation occasioned by such easement may be deducted in the valuation of such property. This section shall not deprive the General Assembly of power to classify property for taxation as provided in section 1 of this Article.

Sec. 9. The General Assembly may vest the corporate authorities of cities, towns and villages with power to make local improvements by special assessment, or by special taxation on contiguous property, or otherwise. For all other corporate purposes, all municipal corporations may be vested with authority to levy and collect taxes subject to the restrictions of sections 1 and 2 of this Article.

Sec. 10. The General Assembly shall not impose taxes upon municipal corporations, or the inhabitants or property thereof, for corporate pu... t shall require the corp... orities to levy taxes for the payment of liabilities incurred under authority of law. Private property shall not be liable to be taken or sold for the payment of the corporate liabilities of a municipal corporation.

Section 13 of Article 9 of this Constitution is repealed.

Form of Ballot

The proposed amendment to Article IX will appear upon the constitution ballot in the following form:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTIONS 1, 2, 3, 9, and 10 of ARTICLE IX AND FOR THE REPEAL OF SECTION 13 OF ARTICLE IX
(Revenue Amendment)

Explanation of Amendment

This amendment would revise Section 1 of Article IX of the State Constitution so as to permit the General Assembly to classify property for tax purposes, subject to the following restriction: (1) the classifications are to be based on the nature and characteristics of the property and not on the nature, characteristics, residence or business of the owner or the amount or number owned; (2) all real estate is to constitute one class, except that lands used for forestry purposes and mineral rights in land may each be classified separately; and (3) if any class of property is taxed by valuation, such tax is to be uniform as to the class.

This amendment would also revise and simplify Section 2 of Article IX, dealing with the levy of miscellaneous types of taxes, but would require such taxes to be uniform as to the same class of subjects within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax. The levy of a graduated income tax would be forbidden.

Other changes are merely routine. This amendment revises Section 3 to require ownership or its equivalent—and not mere use—as a basis for exemption of charitable, religious, and other similar property from taxation. In addition, non-profit hospitals would be added to the list of institutions and purposes for which the General Assembly may grant tax exemption by general law.

Sections 9 and 10 would be revised to subject the taxing powers of cities and other local governments to the same restrictions as apply to the General Assembly. The language in regard to obligations of these governments would be broadened, requiring them to levy taxes not merely—as now—for "debts contracted" but rather for "liabilities incurred."

This amendment would, in addition, repeal obsolete Section 13, which was adopted in 1890 to authorize the corporate authorities of Chicago to issue Columbian Exposition bonds.

Yes	For the proposed amendment to Sections 1, 2, 3, 9, and 10 of Article IX of the Constitution and for the repeal of Section 13 of Article IX of the Constitution (Revenue Amendment).

Often Musused

Although "necessaries" is correct form, it is better to use the word "necessities."

Do not say, "He dove in the water." Say, "He dived into the water."

Do not say, "What did you do that for?" Say, "Why did you do that?"

Do not say, "I have no doubt but what he will come." This is considered awkward. It is much better to say, "I have no doubt that he will come."

Distinguish between "perspicacity" and "perspicutiy." "Perspicacity' is applied to persons, to their insight, their keenness of thought in seeing through things. "Many a person has a good supply of perspicacity." "Perspicuity" is applied to thought or expression, meaning clearness or lucidity. "His statements gleamed with perspicuity."

Do not say, "Our plant is larger than any in the state." Say, "Our plant is larger than any other in the state."

Often Mispronounced

Fiasco (a complete failure). Pronounce fee-ass-koe, accent second syllable.

Tuesday, Pronounce first syllable tyuz, and not tooz.

Nausea. Pronounce nah-shee-a, accent on first syllable.

Abstractly. Accent first syllable, not the second.

Many Prizes at N. Cook Fair

Greater interest in the 4-H Fair was displayed this year by its members than in any previous event. There were an additional 100 entries in the agricultural and livestock departments.

The weather man was unkind. Rain interferred in the horse show Saturday afternoon and practically eliminated the Sunday evening entertainment.

The TV stars were present but attempts to have their numbers under cover was not very successful.

In spite of all the obstacles, the crowds were happy and high praise was heard on all sides.

The financial returns used to promote 4-H club work in the county will not be as large as usual.

"We appreciated the support and cooperation shown by local businessmen and the general public," Adviser Carl Mees said Monday, after he had returned from a similar fair held in the south end of the county.

Prizes were awarded as follows:

TV set — William Gappert, 620 E. Lincoln, Arlington Heights;

Air Conditioner — F. Schmoldt, Rte. 1, Roselle;

Seeding Small Grain

If you are planning to sow wheat or barley this fall it will pay you to drill some fertilizer with the grain. Even though one has a test of "high" in phosphate, one can almost always get back the money spent for phosphate fertilizer. How much to apply can be determined by running a soil test on the land.

The preferred dates for seeding wheat in this area will be around September 20-22. This seeding date will give you the highest yield.

It will take approximately 3 weeks to run a soil test so if you haven't tested your soil as yet, be sure to get it to our office immediately.

Lawn Seeding Time

September is the best month of the year to establish a new lawn or renovate an old lawn.

If you plan on establishing a new lawn, you should be preparing a seed bed now. It will pay you to apply fertilizer also. Sow your seed mixture at the rate of 4 pounds per 100 square feet. Kentucky blue grass should make up the greatest per cent of the mixture. If you would like the details on "lawn care," I would be glad to send you circular 729 entitled "How to have an attractive lawn."

If you would like to fertilize your lawn this fall, apply 10-8-6, 10-10-10, or 5-10-5 fertilizer at the rate of 5 to 10 pounds per 1000 square feet. Be sure the grass is dry. Then rake or water with the hose. You can see the results in a few days. Then be prepared to do some extra mowing. Now is a good time to apply fertilizer for it will feed the desirable turf grasses when growing conditions are most favorable.

Overweight Hogs Mean Lower Market Prices

Nothing has a more consistent record for weakening hog prices than marketing overweight hogs.

And it's really not much trouble to do, says H. G. Russell, extension livestock specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture. All you have to do is let the hogs eat up the reserve feed supply.

But that's an expensive way to cut hog prices, Russell points out. Heavy hogs eat more feed for each pound of grain. And feeding overweight hogs is the easiest way to produce pork that consumers refuse to buy.

RUSSELL, a member of the Meat Type Hog Education committee of the National Swine Growers Council, agrees with the following information prepared by Carroll Plager, Austin, Minn. Plager, also a member of the education committee, says that market prices express both the kind of supply and the kind of demand. John Q. Public will eat 80 pounds of pork each year, but he doesn't want much of it in the form of salt pork from heavy hogs.

Likewise, there's a world of difference between 3 200-pound meat hogs and 2 300-pound fat hogs, Plager says. The tonnage is the same, but the kind of supply is in sharp contrast.

Obvious as these facts are, there is always a temptation to feed hogs to heavy weights. Periodically a short supply of heavy hogs pulls their market price close to the market top. But nearly always producers that take the gamble and feed longer than they should, find the price differential back to normal again before they decide to sell, and they lose again.

Furthermore, the discount on a 300-pound hog is 3 times as great as it seems. It applies to the original 200 pounds as well as to the extra 100 pounds. It follows, then, that selling at 200 to 220 pounds is the easiest way to raise and maintain market prices for hogs.

Tractor Accidents

Tractor accidents kill about 1,000 farmers every year, according to the 1956 edition of "Accident Facts," the statistical yearbook of the National Safety Council which is just off the press.

One-third of the tractor deaths occur in highway accidents while the tractor is being moved from 1 place to another.

One Grain Fungicide Shown To Be Non-Toxic

An experiment at the University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine indicates that corn treated with the fungicide Captan is not harmful as feed for pigs and chickens.

Dr. R. P. Link of the college staff says the experiment was conducted because surplus supplies of seed grains, treated to protect them against fungus in the soil at seeding time, are sometimes fed to livestock.

Some fungicidal agents are toxic, and grain treated with recommended amounts of them should not be fed to animals. Tests with Captan, however, show that it has a low toxicity. It produced no harmful effects in pigs and chickens that were fed a balanced ration containing corn treated with the amounts of Captan ordinarily used for treating seed.

Treatment of corn with the fungicide did not appear to affect the nutritive value nor the amount of grain the pigs and chickens ate.

"Our Aim: To Fear God, Tell The Truth, and Make Money," — H. C. Paddock, 1898-1935

Happenings 10, 20, 30, 40, And 50 Years Ago This Week

50 Years Ago

August 24, 1906

Our patrons should give the editor credit for maintaining the good quality of his newspaper during this hot weather. It takes lots of energy and money to gather news, set type and print papers while others are enjoying their vacations.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday were the hottest days so far during 1906. July and August, two months of continuous extreme hot weather, a record-breaker with no let-up in sight. What will the next extreme be?

H. C. Paddock and Sons have just finished several jobs of fine printing, some two and three color work, for Dr. S. F. Swantees, the patentee of "Quitshivering Underwear," among which was a 12-page pamphlet with handsome cover giving a clear description of the best thing in underwear you ever heard of.

We understand that Mayor Klehm has about decided to decline further honors after his present term expires as the duties require too much of his valuable time. He can retire proud of the work done during his administration. The present board has wisely managed public business. They found affairs in bad shape and it took careful figuring to untangle matters and satisfy creditors.

Stuart Paddock left Sunday for an indefinite vacation and the editor has to hustle harder than ever to do three men's work.

South Barrington -- The "Trio" have nearly all the supplies necessary for their proposed camping tour. Stella will furnish the tent and egg-basket; Mabel the walking stick and stein; and Mary the dog dish, foot-bath, pin tray, frying pan, card receiver, etc.

Fred Redeker has added a telephone to his model, modern store for the convenience of his customers. Phone your orders in and the goods will be promptly delivered.

The cement walk in front of Hartman's shoe store and Mrs. Hart's place is completed, ready for tramps.

Palatine – The fear that Palatine would be affected by the general shortage of ice, can be set at rest as we are reliably informed that on account of a contract, Mr. Wente will be able to supply his customers thru the kindness of the Palatine Ice Cream Co.

If you feel like kicking to the ice man if he does not happen to get around as often as you think he ought, just stop and thank yourself that there is an ice man in town. Some of our neighboring towns are out of ice and only the business houses are served.

Jerry Dean, the 13-year-old son of Chas. Dean, put Palatine on the map again, when he won his maiden race at Evansville last Friday with Dan the Great. When the judges announced from the grandstand box that the youngest driver in the world, as well as the oldest, would drive in the next race, there was great applause from the grandstand and that applause became deafening when Jerry won the first heat. He drove with the time-honored "Dean Judgement" that is known on every race course in the country.

The hotel facilities in Palatine will be far from sufficient to accommodate the large number who will be here this week. For the good of the cause the fair management requests that the citizens with spare rooms, notify secretary G. H. Arps or place signs on their homes. Thus the visiting public will be served and you can realize a little money.

Mount Prospect – The hot weather of the past week increased the demand for milk in Chicago so much it kept the trucks a humming to deliver the goods. Five loads every day and 6 Thursday one of which was all buttermilk.

One of our chauffeurs witnessed a clear case of the terrible effects of five miles of dust eating, for which no cure has been found yet. The symptoms very must resemble those of blind staggers in horses. Fistic arguments only tend to develope the disease in its very worst form. We have the assurance of Hon. Wm. Busse that the disease will be pretty well stamped out in a few more years of concrete road building.

Sentiment of the state shows Frank O. Lowden as the choice for governor of the majority of Republican voters.

Next week will see the annual Cook County Fair at Palatine, the only surviving county fair in northern Illinois, open its gates as usual, but the fact that those gates will open and open on what promises to be Cook county's greatest fair is made possible only by the public spirited attitude of a few men who have in the past made possible the continuation of the fair by the personal signing of notes to make up various deficiencies. The future of Cook County Fair depends upon the support it receives this year from the public.

The voters of Arlington Heights again went on record last week as being in favor of needed public improvements. By a vote of seven to one they placed their stamp of approval upon a bond issue of $20,000 for the purpose of enlarging the facilities of the water pumping system of the village. The vote was light, only 63 being cast of which only 8 were in the negative.

R. Jahn has an occupant for that new garage he recently erected. The occupant is a Buick sedan, 1927 model, the first of the new Buick cars to be brought into Arlington Heights. It is not the only one, however. Its twin sister is living happily in the garage of Geo. K. Volz and a big brother is being driven by A. F. Volz.

The Arlington theatre's next attraction will give photoplay goers what is predicted as the biggest surprise of the year. Screendom's most famous dramatic actress has turned comedienne. Norma Talmadge is the star and her latest picture is "Kiki," an elaborate cinema version of the David Belasco stage success.

Prof. and Mrs. Paul Meeske were given a very pleasant surprise August 22 by the members of the Elk Grove Church Ladies Aid and the band. The event was the 25th anniversary of the happy couple. The surprise was complete and Prof. Meeske was as white as a sheet when the band started to play in his front yard.

Arlington Heights, a City of 7500 by 1940, is a possibility in the estimation of Messrs. Behrens and Flentie, who are now able to be the connecting link between the responsible lot owner and the financial institution with thousands of dollars for investment in new homes for Arlington Heights and contiguous territory.

The Arlington Heights village board passed its 1936 tax levy Monday night, the figures being reduced by $2,635, under those of 1935 when they were $36,880. The 1936 total is $34,245. In these days when the full collection of taxes is problematical, such action on the part of the board shows a determination on the party of that taxing body not to penalize the taxpayer, who pays because his neighbor is allowing his taxes to be defaulted.

The spring and summer season just drawing to an end has been the liveliest and best season that Palatine real estate has experienced since 1928. Mr. DePue states that he and his assistants have personally been responsible for the moving of more than 25 new families into the Palatine district in the last six months. Palatine real estate is definitely on the upgrade.

More evidence that good times are again returning to Roselle is seen in the announcement that a new store will open next Wednesday to be owned and operated by Martin Kruse. It will carry a full line af foods and cold meats and at the start a limited stock of dry goods.

Because the majority of the citizens of Bensenville, employed outside the railroad yards here work in Chicago and use the Milwaukee railroad as a means of transportation, the people of the community are asking the railroad company if they won't improve the depot facilities.

Geo. K. Volz, Wheeling township treasurer, returned last week from that trip to Hudson Bay without meeting that Eskimo which the prospectus promised him would be waiting to greet the passengers from the United States.

The interpretation that Arthur A. Sullivan, master in chancery for the Circuit Court of Cook County, gives to a 1929 amended set of the state legislature, could cost the village of Arlington Heights nearly $150,000. Hugo J. Thal, attorney for the village differs with Sullivan and is confident that the courts will uphold the municipality. The case has been in the courts over four years.

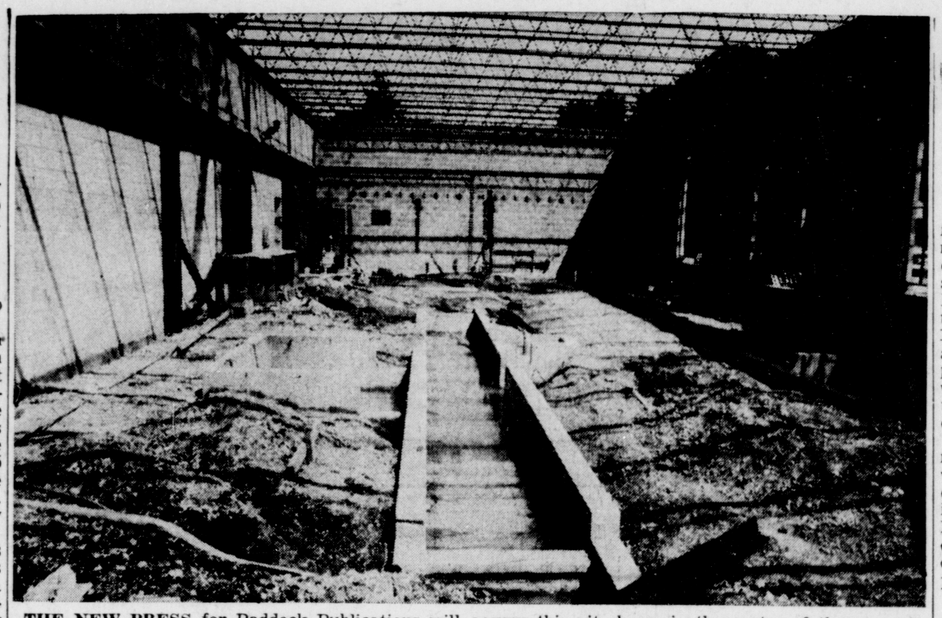
Many northwest area couples exchanged vows including Jean Talbot and Victor Baumgart, Ruth Van Kirk and Albert Wambach, Sarah Price and Cecil Dallas, "Sonny" Redfern and James Hahn, Lorraine Fiene and John Rajer Jr., Alice Kuhl and Matthew Raier and Tillie Janice and Anthony Balek.

Many telephones began ringing Monday afternoon following an explosion of a charge of dynamite that wrecked the 60 foot chimney of the former Klehm greenhouses. The chimney had become dangerous to predestrians and Chas. Klehm, who is acquiring the property, insisted that it be wrecked. His memory goes back to 1892, the year before the first Chicago World's Fair when his father thought that he would make a fortune the following year on his flowers. That chimney had to be strong and in place of using regular building sand he insisted that it be hauled from the shores of Lake Michigan.

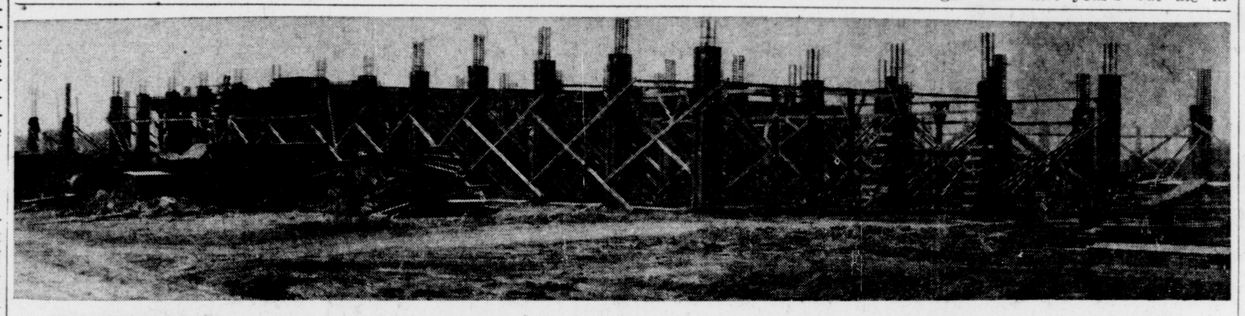
A remaining relic of the old days is a water reservoir built about the same year in which was stored all the water from the roofs from the greenhouses to be used in watering the flowers within those houses.

In The Future

An English company has built a blow-up rubber hut for campers. It weighs 160 pounds, sleeps 30 men . . . An imported mousetrap's vendor's boast that it always catches the mouse, never nips the trapper's fingers . . . Cartons of soap will soon come with measuring dispensers, to keep you from getting too much in the dishpan . . . A pocket-sized German geiger counter is linked to an amplifier to make its weak clicks audible.



THE NEW PRESS for Paddock Publications will occupy this pit shown in the center of the current addition being added to the publishing plant in Arlington Heights. The walls are up, steel framework is ready for the roof. The 32-page rotary is scheduled for delivery in October and will include a color unit for future development.



A SECOND CAMPUS for high school district 214 is beginning to take shape on Foundry rd. between Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect. The academic unit shown under construction will house freshman students by next fall and eventually sophomore students now at Arlington high school will probably also transfer to Prospect high school. —Staff photo

LAST WEEK'S HEADLINES

Resume of front page news that appeared in various editions of Paddock Publications and other newspapers of the area that will keep readers informed on headline news of their neighbors.

The village will soon have its first municipal parking lots. A lot north of Dunton court shopping center will hold an estimated 80 shopper autos and a second 5-acre lot east of State rd. and south of the CNW right of way will hold 100 shopper and 250 commuter autos. Cost of the 2 projects is put at $335,000, of which $240,000 will come from a bond issue and the remainder from various sources.

The Arlington Heights plan commission last week urged that the village join Mt. Prospect in a double suit to halt sale of homes in Hatlen Heights subdivision. Mt. Prospect hopes to force the subdivider to donate land for schools or other public use.

PALATINE

The village board acted to reverse the tide of rising taxes while at the same time expanding village services. The board approved an appropriation 11 per cent larger than last year's but the increase will be more than offset by a rise in property tax evaluation. Thus the tax bill for the village will actually drop about 10 cents for each 100 of valuation. This amounts to a 20 per cent cut in the village tax rate.

Palatine's village board passed an ordinance setting up an annexation fee of $500 an acre.

Palatine's population is 7,866, released by federal census takers.

MT. PROSPECT

The village has pruned 1,700 elm trees and found no confirmed cases of Dutch elm disease. Most other area communities, including Des Palines, Arlington Heights and Palatine, have been invaded by the blight.

WHEELING

Judge Walter P. Kahl's dismissal last week of gambling charges against 2 Wheeling men has touched off a full scale investigation by Cook Cunty Sheriff Lohman.

Wheeling is getting another shopping center. As Ray and Glenn Miller, prepared to break ground on their Wheeling Shopping center "uptown," plans for a $1,500,000 Dunhurst Shopping center were unveiled by Howard G. Krafsur, of Landau and Perlman, Chicago sponsors of the project.

Rolling Meadows hopes to organize its own park district, an alderman disclosed at last week's city council session.

THE FENCE POST

Letters to the Fence Post should be short and concise. All letters must be signed, though name will be withheld if desired. Address Fence Post, Paddock Publications, Inc., Arlington Heights, Ill.

Many Thanks

When I read in the editor's column that he was 75, I thought it was a typo or that he was jesting with his readers.

Then I saw the 2 pictures of the birthday luncheons and discovered that it was indeed true.

It is almost 44 years since I learned the lay of the case in the old Milwaukee Free Press composing room as a reward for rushing the growler for the printers. It is 35 years since I first began writing for print, and 30 years since I had my first byline in a metropolitan newspaper.

If, when I am 75, my writing has any considerable part of the clarity, depth, both of wisdom and perception, and kindliness that Editor Paddock displays week after week, I shall be a proud and happy man.

No, I shan't wish him "75 more years of the same." Only that he may continue to live as long as he ejoys life and that he enjoy life as long as he lives.

Cordially,
Don DeMichaels
Park Ridge, Ill.

Alcoholics Anonymous

I am writing to you in hope of correcting an erroneous conception concerning Alcoholics Anonymous. In order to be "eligible" for membership you don't have to progress so far that you lose family, position, health, self-respect and all the things that make life worthwhile. The only requirement is an honest desire to quit drinking and an admission to yourdelf that your life have become unmanageable because of drinking.

There seems to be, even in this day an age of enlightenment, a public attitude that to admit you have no control over your drinking is a disgrace. There is no moral degeneracy connected with alcoholism. It is a disease that grows progressively worse unless checked. The alcoholic pass is over an invisible line we term a "tolerance point" during his drinking career where he can no longer control his drinking. After the first 1, or 2 or 3, drinks, depending on the individual, the "phenomenon of craving" sets in and he continues to drink in excess of possibly what he intended. In other words controlled drinking is a thing of the past.

A. A. OFFERS a wonderful new way of life that gives much more than the dubious solace found in a bottle. Most drinkers are afraid of the boredom they will face when the bottle is removed. Let me asenough to accomplish all they will find to do.

When AA was founded, they believed the newcomers really needed to hit rock bottom to make a success of the program. This is not necessarily the case as they recently discovered. Many young people are coming on the program while they still have their families, health, and position in the community. I know for I'm one of them. If the problem drinker only knew how little he would have to give up in order to gain so much—

THERE ARE 3 AA groups in Arlington Heights. Anyone interested in information should contact the main office in Chicago for details and they will have a member call. It must be noted, however, that the decision should and virtually must-come from the individual and not wife, family, boss or friends. AA is not a cure; it is a way of life and IT WORKS—it really does.

Stop Spraying

I see by last week's paper, that the village of Palatine was bragging about the new expensive street sweeper. Well, I say, just take the thing back and use the money for some necessary purpose.

When the sweeper went by our house, clouds of dust rolled into our house, tho I shut doors and windows as fast as I could. That on top of that heavy oil used in the mosquito spray, the windows, etc., are such a mess.

Even the leaves on the trees are coated with that heavy black oil used in the mosquito spray, how can the leaves breathe! The houses are coated with it, surely it will have to be scrubbed off house. And the windows, it is impossible to keep them clean.

What this horrible spray does to the lungs of people! Someone surely ought to find out, before it is used another year. I say kill the mosquitoes in their breeding places, get rid of all breeding places, but stop this horrible spray.

A Palatine Homeowner

Cat Poisoned

To the guilty party:

This is a letter to the guilty party who poisoned our beautiful Manx cat.

She never harmed you, but I do hope your conscience is hurting you and giving you tremendous pain such as our cat suffered before she died.

Law Enforcement

Your column entitled "Carnival Raid: Who's at Fault?" has prompted me to take a stand in behalf of the many conscientious police officers, law respecting citizens, church congregations, village officials and civic or social groups on the issue involved.

As everyone well knows, the law is clear and does not provide exceptions or special privileges to either fraternal, commercial, religious, individual or civic groups. Nor does the law hold these groups responsible for its enforcement. The responsibility lies completely within the Village Government of local law enforcement agencies. Laxity or failure to execute enforcement by officials and officers under sworn oath of office is sufficient cause for indictment and removal from their office or appointment.

Surely, there can be no criticism of any agency (county police) who acted rightfully in the absence or willful neglect by local authorities. Instead, the county police should be complimented and encouraged to further clean up all locally known gambling operations. Recently, I have brought similar local violations to the attention of certain officials and am sorry to report that less than acceptable enforcement action has resulted.

All "sneak" operations are known to the law enforcement agencies whom the taxpayers elect or employ, so why should it be necessary for an individual church congregation, newspaper or social group to concern themselves with the problem of calling it to their attention—when obviously nothing happens.

Enforcement failure means just one thing to me—surely they must condone it, otherwise how could it exist? The answer does not lie in the fact that no one person or group are not thinking about it and turn their heads away; but rather the fact that high elected or approved officials must be made to understand clearly that they will personally be held responsible, indicted and prosecuted, for failure to enforce the law.

To get prompt corrective action, undoubtedly the future method lies solely in the incorporation of a non-profit Citizen Advisory Board of clergymen, lawyers and right-minded citizens dedicated to the principle of preserving law and order, through documentary and ultimately investigative procedure of Federal Court action. It is a sorry state of affairs to be compelled to follow this course but it is the only kind of action which apparently remains.

It is not that we tax-paying individuals have not a conscience, instead it is the condoners, the participants and the enforcers who do not have a conscience.

The average tax payer is kept busy these days with business and home responsibilities which command his foremost attention, endeavoring to meet these basic responsibilities without having to spend his few remaining leisure hours reprimanding those public servants which he employs, or elects, who sometimes disgustingly and wilfully destroy the confidence and trust delegated to him.

Our only other opportunity awaits us at election time when we can remove those elected individuals who seek to perpetuate obstruction of the law through political patronage.

Under today's excessive real estate, school, excise, personal property and vehicle taxes, not to mention water and sewer rates, there is no good reason for any group to resort to devious methods to procure school, fire or police equipment. If a community project is needed, there are legal methods and procedures to obtain it that should be followed. Judicious use of appropriated public funds will more than suffice at all times.

We are fortunate that we have many fine conscientious respectable, law enforcing public officials, police officers, civic organizations, school personnel, church organizations, and law abiding citizens here in our wonderful community that work untiringly to make our village the fine place it is to live and raise our families in. Let's give credit where credit is due and place the blame squarely upon those persons who are responsible for their overt acts.

My hat is off, in due respect, to those county officers and Sheriff Lohman, who rightfully attempt to enforce the law — it's the sheriff who has the big job cut out for him—Keep it up Joe!

Sincerely yours,
Charles C. Rehfeldt
Mayor Al. Goedke and Board of Village Trustees

From W. Busse St. Neighbors

We, the residents of W. Busse st., Mt. Prospect, feel it genuinely unfortunate that our stand on the carnival site has temporarily disrupted the planning of the Lions club and wish to make it known publicly that our request to alter the carnival site was based on personal disappointment toward the property itself and certainly not toward any group, dislike toward the Lions club or any other civic, church or village organization.

WE FEEL it unfortunate that, as relatively new citizens in your community we have created what might be termed by some an uncivic, unappreciative stand in the matter and to help erase any blemish we may have made, it is our sincere wish to prove ourselves as good, appreciated and appreciative citizens and also to support the Lions club carnival and any other function, both physically and economically, to the best of our means.

In meeting with the Lions club officers we were exposed to community knowledge and planning that was of great benefit to us and has inspired a feeling of belonging in each of us — also the Lions club officers and men themselves have shown us a brand of kindness, understanding and sincerity that is a credit to them and their community. We feel indeed fortunate and gratified to learn that such men as they are a part of our town.

AGAIN we wish to apologize for club, village and community will give us the opportunity to show that we are grateful in our thanks and sincere in our wishes to become good neighbors, friends and citizens to your community.

W. Busse St. Neighbors

Wha' Happen?

Anyone wondering why so many homes are for sale in Rolling Meadows, need not look far for a reason. There are many.

Back in 1955 when the planners were screaming incorporate or perish they made big talk. If we did not incorporate our taxes would go sky high, our water rates would go up and other various threats. So we incorporated and the politicians made up the city's rules — which brings us to the city today.

* * *

WATER BILLS are running anywhere from $25 to $50 a quarter. This was the water system owned by Kimball Hill which John Doyle said would be bought or condemned at pre-incorporation meetings. Today Mr. Doyle, our city attorney, is too busy to answer inquiries regarding this situation. (Incidentally after December, 1956, the option for Rolling Meadows to take over the water system will expire.)

Taxes—They only went from $150 a year to $230 a year!

Transportation system — this is a joke!

AND TO ADD, the rules of the city call for all weeds over 10 inches to be cut or owner will be fined. Take a look at the 5 feet tall weeds at Campbell and School drive sometime! I think every resident should write to the state regarding the health hazard at Campbell and Salt Creek before some one's child is lost in this dumping area.

Disgusted,
Richard Bickel
Rolling Meadows

JUST from Patty McArdle AROUND THE CORNER

Dear Peg:

The Mackinac Island Chamber of Commerce will hate me for saying this, but the impression I have of the island that is most vivid and likely to be most lasting is the smell of horses (I don't mean horses as such—I'm just trying to be polite)! Granted, it was a warm and rather humid day, which may have accounted for the pungent odor that drifted out to meet us at the dock. You see, Peg, nothing automotive is allowed on the island. This pretty well limits locomotion to horse and buggy riding, bicycling or walking. Apparently, the "natives" either ignore it or have become so used to it, that the stable-scent doesn't seem to bother them at all. Frankly, it makes our stockyards smell like a rose garden!

If you have never been to Mackinac, I certainly wouldn't discourage your taking a trip there, especially if you plan to take the children. It's a most unusual place. We drove from Harbor Springs to the pier, from which a boat leaves for the island every hour, in plenty of time to take movies of the "Mackinaw Clipper" and ourselves, naturally. The girls were thrilled when the boat "tooted" its signal for casting off and slowly backed away from the dock. When finally it turned its nose toward the island and, gathering speed, headed for the open water, we relaxed and looked out at the panorama of distant islands, sky and water and crafts of every description either sailing or motoring for somewhere.

IN FRONT OF US, the bow cut into the deep blue water, throwing up a spray of diamonds on each side and behind us trailed two long ropes of white foam. One of the longest bridges in the world is under construction now, connecting the mainland of Michigan with St. Ignace, across the straits of Mackinac. A suspension bridge, its two completed spans resemble the spectacular Golden Gate bridge in California. As we neared the island, we could see, set in the side of a hill, the massive, many columned, many windowed Grand Hotel.

When we stepped off the boat, we were only a block from the center of the village. As you would expect, it is very commercialized, although we passed several interesting-looking dining places with intriguing colonial names and, from what we could see, attractive interiors. We walked up the narrow, winding street to the Grand Hotel. It's reputed to have the longest hotel veranda in the world, and I believe it. I also believe that from the veranda you have one of the lovliest views in the world. Below are the formal gardens and swimming pool, then farther, the tops of trees and houses in the village, at last, the sapphire blue water spreading out like a blanket as far as you can see.

AFTER OUR LUNCH at the hotel (very unsatisfactory—$3.60 for a stale ham sandwich), we took a horse and buggy to the fort. The original stockade and many of the original buildings are still standing. The girls enjoyed most the museum of French, English, American and American Indian relics.

I'm sure we'll all remember the carnival-like main street, the grandeur of the Grand Hotel and the antiquity of the fort, but most of all, when we remember Mackinac Island, we'll remember the horses.

My love,
Patty.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

THE WORLD is just a mass of dissatisfaction. It is never so apparent as when the young start spouting off. Why does youth strain forward agewise while age is perfectly willing to hang back a little?

I have informed my junior high students that I think 11 is too young to use paint and powder except on houses and in six shooters. This is discouraging for them as the house just was painted and the number of six shooters around the place can be counted on no hands.

THEY GET so discouraged that every now and then one of them comes down the stairway looking too innocent for words and too healthy to be natural. Even they, young as they are, cannot acquire such a bloom to the lips in so short a time. So they are sent back to wash which they do amid screams to the tune of, "if all the other girls do it why can't I?"

The oldest one is never so happy as when some kind soul tells her that she looks all of 20. Is she interested in her last year of high school? No. She is planning her college wardrobe right down to the last detail. As far as I can figure out, she is just going to skip this year entirely and pretend it never happened.

BACK IN THE olden days, when I was younger. This statement always causes whoops of glee from the offspring because they KNOW I was never young. Anyway, back in the dark ages, I did things like play tennis, toe dance and take my turn at touch football. Every now and then nostalgia hits me with a horrible bang and I try all these things. Well, I don't go in for football any more because no one will let me play with them.

One by one, amid creaking bones and aching muscles that I didn't even know I had, these gay sports have been given up. I have had to be satisfied with such whippy sports as pulling weeds and putting in zippers. But that doesn't keep me from dreaming of the good old days when I was coordinated as all get out.

Anyone for a game of dominoes?

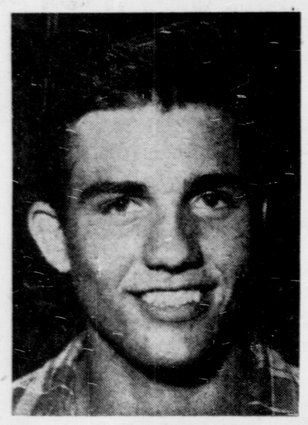
PADDOCK PUBLICATIONS

MUST Be A Good Place To Hunt!

AGE 18

BOB HASKINS



Bob Haskins began working in the Paddock mechanical department when he was a junior at Arlington Heights high school.

Since then he has worked part time during the school term and full time in the summer, doing everything from setting type for headlines to assisting in the operation of the large rotary newspaper press. This fall he will begin his engineering studies at the University of Illinois, but continue his association at Paddock during summers.

His part time work didn't keep him from actively participating in high school life. Among his accomplishments at school were election to the junior class vice presidency as well as the vice presidency of student council in his senior year.

RON EILKEN

Husky Ron Eilken is proof that age has nothing to do with responsibility. He will be responsible for operating the new $250,000 multi-color newspaper press to be installed this fall in Paddock's new addition.

Since January, Eilken has run the press which each week prints more than 23,000 copies of the Paddock newspapers.

A resident of Des Plaines, he was graduated in 1955 from Maine Township high school and worked part time for another printing company before starting work at Paddock Publications in 1954.

His chief interest in off-hours is his 1956 hard-top coupe and a power boat he keeps docked at Chain-o-Lakes.

MIKE BONNER

Mike Bonner is a full-time linotype operator for Paddock Publications and is planning on a career in the printing trade. His early contact with printing was with Junior Achievement in his native St. Louis Park, Minn., near Minneapolis.

He moved to Arlington Heights 3 years ago with his family and completed his schooling at Arlington Heights high school. Bonner first came to Paddock in 1953 as part of a diversified occupations course at the high school.

In his spare time, he devotes his energy to electrical work. Hi fidelity is his specialty. He's also especially pleased these summer days with his 1956 convertible.

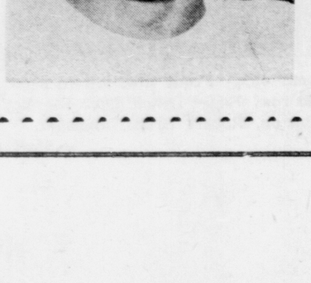
BOB FRISK



Bob Frisk, a junior in journalism at the University of Illinois, has conveniently combined professional experience on the sports staff of Paddock Publications with his classroom studies.

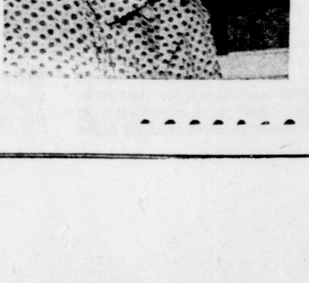
Member of Sigma Pi fraternity and editor of its national magazine as well as chapter newspaper, Frisk is also a member of Skull and Crescent honorary society. He is past intramural sports editor and spring varsity football reporter for the Daily Illini, student newspaper.

He was sports editor for 2 years of the Cardinal and sports editor for the yearbook at Arlington Heights high school.

Frisk has been associated with Paddock 4 years, the last 2 spent as assistant to sports editor Bob Paddock.

21

FRED HOFFMAN



Fred Hoffman of Palatine has been with the mechanical department of Paddock Publications since November, 1952

Originally a Chicagoan, he was graduated from Washburn trade school and worked as a pressman for a commercial printing firm in Chicago before coming to Paddock Publications.

His work, in addition to regular pressman, includes makeup of the picture, feature, and farm pages.

Most of Hoffman's free time is spent aboard his motor boat, which is moored on Bluff Lake in the Chain-o-Lakes region.

23

DICK DUNKEL, Jr.

Affable Dick Dunkel Jr. started with Paddock Publications in February and since then has been in charge of the chain's Wheeling edition. His notoriety has spread far beyond that village's boundaries, however, because of his outspoken commentaries in his weekly column, "Words on Wheeling."

Previously he was sports editor for the Daytona Beach, Fla., News-Journal and the Nippon Times in Tokyo, Japan. He attended Wittenberg college, where he was sports editor of the college paper, and UCLA. He was discharged from the army a year ago.

Born and raised in New Jersey, he claimed Daytona Beach, Fla., as home for 10 years and now resides in Barrington Countryside.

SAM VALENZO

Sam Valenzo Jr. is another local boy who has decided on a career in a local business firm. He came to Paddock Publications last March after 2 years with a wholesale radio-TV parts firm in Chicago.

A graduate of Arlington Heights high school, he served in the army in Japan. He was discharged in 1953.

His work at Paddock's consists chiefly of supervising type classification for the 10 editions as well as operating 2 linotype machines equipped with automatic Teletypesetters.

His spare time is spent helping his parents build a new home.

CHARLES HAYES

News editor of Paddock Publications is Charles Hayes, who began as a general assignment reporter in August, 1954, while finishing work on an M. S. degree in journalism at Northwestern university.

Before joining the Paddock staff he worked for the Chicago Daily News and Lemont Lemonter. He has a B. S. in education degree from Wittenberg college, where he was editor of the student newspaper.

News editor since last December, his duties consist of front page makeup, editing, and assisting editor Stuart Paddock, Sr.

Hayes is a member of the Chicago Headline club, Sigma Delta Chi journalism society, and claims nearby Park Ridge as hometown.

26

TOM BRENNAN

Before joining the editorial staff of Paddock Publications in December, 1955, Tom Brennan worked for the Milwaukee Sentinel and the Wheaton Daily Journal.

Now a special assignment writer and assistant news editor, his "beat" includes all northwest Cook county from which he gleans a host of human interest and news stories which frequently appear under his by-line. He is primarily responsible for covering important village affairs in Arlington Heights.

His early journalism training includes a stint on the sports staff of his college paper and public information work in the air force. In addition to A. B. and M. A. degrees in journalism from Marquette university, Brennan spent a year with the Institute of European Studies at the University of Vienna.
